WORTH NOTING

A NUMBERS GAME

• TCU led the nation last season in total defense (239.7 yards per game) while ranking seventh in total offense (456.7 yards per game).
• The Frogs and Florida were the only teams to appear in the top 10 in both categories.

THE GRADUATES

• All 13 seniors on the 2009 TCU football team have already earned their degree or are on pace to receive it this spring.
• Eighteen TCU football players received their degree in the 2008-09 academic year.

SENIOR CLASSES

• With 27 seniors on the roster, the 2010 TCU football team will more than double the number of seniors on last year's squad.
• TCU tied for ninth nationally last season in having the fewest number of seniors (13).
• TCU had just six seniors in its starting lineup and more freshmen (17) on the depth chart than seniors (13) on the roster.

SELECT COMPANY

• TCU is one of just 20 schools to have won multiple national championships (1935, 1938) and produce a Heisman Trophy winner (Davey O'Brien, 1938).
• The other members of this select group are Alabama, Army, Auburn, Florida, Florida State, Georgia, LSU, Miami (Fla.), Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, Notre Dame, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Penn State, Pittsburgh, SMU, Texas and USC.

WINNING CLASSES

• Last year's seniors won 42 games to become the winningest class in TCU history.
• The previous win record for a class was set by the 2008 seniors who won 41 games.
• Most wins in a four-year period at TCU:

	Years	Wins
1.	2006-09	42
2.	2005-08	41
3.	1932-35	40
4.	1933-36	39
5.	2003-06	38
	1930-33	38

RANKINGS

• Included below is a look at TCU's 2009 week-by-week ranking:

	AP	USA Today	Harris	BCS
Preseason	17	17	-	-
Sept. 6	16	16	-	-
Sept. 13	15	15	-	-
Sept. 20	15	14	-	-
Sept. 27	11	10	11	-
Oct. 4	10	9	10	-
Oct. 11	12	8	10	-
Oct. 18	10	7	8	8
Oct. 25	8	6	7	6
Nov. 1	6	4	6	6
Nov. 8	4	4	4	4
Nov. 15	4	4	4	4
Nov. 22	4	4	4	4
Nov. 29	4	4	4	4
Dec. 6	3	3	3	4
Jan. 8	6	6	-	-

• TCU posted its third top-10 final ranking in the last five seasons.
• The Frogs had their highest season-ending ranking since 1955, when they were also sixth.
• TCU has posted back-to-back top-10 appearances in final polls for the first time since the 1958-59 campaigns. The Frogs finished seventh in 2008.
• The Frogs received four No. 1 votes in the final Harris Poll.
• TCU was fourth in the BCS standings for the highest appearance by a team from a conference without an automatic bid.
• TCU has been ranked in the polls for 26 consecutive weeks.
• TCU began the year 17th for its highest ranking in a preseason poll since 1960.

PRESEASON PREDICTIONS

• Included below is where TCU was picked and finished in preseason polls since Gary Patterson's arrival in 1998:

Year	Conference	Prediction	Finish
1998	WAC	6th, Mtn. Division	T-5th, Mtn. Division
1999	WAC	1st	T-1st
2000	WAC	1st	T-1st
2001	C-USA	4th	T-5th
2002	C-USA	4th	T-1st
2003	C-USA	1st	2nd
2004	C-USA	4th	T-7th
2005	MWC	6th	1st
2006	MWC	1st	2nd
2007	MWC	1st	5th
2008	MWC	3rd	2nd
2009	MWC	1st	1st

• TCU became just the fourth team in the MWC's 11-year history to finish first after being the preseason pick to win the league.
• The Frogs' previous two conference championships came after they were picked no higher than fourth.

GOOD OMENS

• An Oct. 10 win at Air Force in its Mountain West Conference opener was an indicator of good things to come for TCU. In the three seasons they won their MWC opener (2005, 2008, 2009), the Frogs have posted a combined 23-1 league record. In the two years TCU dropped its MWC opener (2006, 2007), the combined league mark is 10-6.

ACC CHAMPS

• Two of TCU's opening three victories last season were on the road at ACC opponents.
• The Frogs led 30-0 at Virginia with 4:39 to play before posting a 30-14 decision. TCU won 14-10 at Clemson.

FROG OFFENSIVE NOTES

JUST WIN, BABY

• Senior Andy Dalton is tied with Slingin' Sammy Baugh for the most victories by a starting quarterback in TCU history:

No.	Name	Record
1.	Andy Dalton (2007-present)	29-7-0 (.806)
	Sam Baugh (1934-36)	29-7-2 (.789)
3.	Casey Printers (1999-01)	23-8-0 (.742)
4.	Jeff Ballard (2005-06)	19-2-0 (.905)
5.	Max Knake (1992-95)	18-14-0 (.563)
	Davey O'Brien* (1936-38)	18-11-2 (.613)

*1938 Heisman Trophy winner

• Dalton is fourth in winning percentage by a TCU starting quarterback:

No.	Name	Winning Pct.
1.	Jeff Ballard (2005-06)	.905 (19-2-0)
2.	Howard Grubbs (1928-29)	.875 (17-2-1)
3.	Tye Gunn (2002-05)	.813 (13-3-0)
4.	Andy Dalton (2007-present)	.806 (29-7-0)
5.	Sam Baugh (1934-36)	.789 (29-7-2)

FINDING HIS TARGETS

• Dalton's 61.6 completion percentage (199-of-323) last season fell just short of breaking Jeff Ballard's TCU mark of 61.9 set in 2006.
• Dalton is second in TCU history for the lowest interception percentage at 2.4 (24 picks in 1,001 pass attempts). It's a mark that ranks third among active quarterbacks in the NCAA.
• In the last eight games, Dalton has 17 touchdown passes with five interceptions. He's thrown for at least two scores in seven of the last 11 contests.
• In his last 19 games, since returning from a two-game injury absence, Dalton has 34 touchdown passes and only 11 picks.
• Dalton has also excelled of late with his running ability:

	Rushes	Yards	Avg. Per Carry	TDs	Avg./Game
First 9 games	56	22	0.4	1	2.4
Last 28 games	271	1,154	4.3	15	41.2

TCU GAME-BY-GAME OFFENSIVELY

Opponent	Rushing	Passing	Total Offense
Virginia	203	177	380
Texas State	286	222	508

Utah	342	207	549
Wyoming	355	168	523
New Mexico	202	228	430
Boise State	36	272	308

• TCU topped 300 yards in rushing and 500 yards in total offense in four consecutive games (Oct. 31 - Nov. 21).
• TCU had a regular-season low in rushing yards (127) against BYU and a season high in passing (285 yards).
• TCU totaled at least 380 yards of offense in each game last season prior to the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl (308).

KEEPING IT ON THE GROUND

• The Frogs have won 31 games in a row when rushing for more yards than passing.
• TCU has won 40 straight when rushing for at least 167 yards.
• Under head coach Gary Patterson, TCU is 45-2 with 200 or more yards rushing.
• In just three quarters, Andy Dalton ran for a season-high 88 yards at Wyoming.

THE CENTURY MARK

• Three Frogs cracked 100 yards in receiving last season:

Name	Yards	Opponent
Antoine Hicks	123 (5 rec., 2 TDs)	New Mexico
Jimmy Young	113 (6 rec., 0 TDs)	Air Force
Ryan Christian	106 (3 rec., 2 TDs)	San Diego State

LONGEST PLAYS
• Included below were TCU's longest plays from scrimmage in 2009:

Yards	Play	Game
75 (TD)	Andy Dalton pass to Antoine Hicks	UNLV
75 (TD)	Andy Dalton pass to Antoine Hicks	BYU
64	Ed Wesley run	Utah
62 (TD)	Andy Dalton pass to Antoine Hicks	New Mexico
59 (TD)	Ed Wesley run	UNLV
58	Andy Dalton pass to Ed Wesley	Clemson
48 (TD)	Matthew Tucker run	Wyoming
47 (TD)	Andy Dalton pass to Curtis Clay	Colorado State
45 (TD)	Andy Dalton pass to Jeremy Kerley	Wyoming
44 (TD)	Andy Dalton pass to Ryan Christian	San Diego State
44	Jeremy Kerley pass to Bart Johnson	BYU

• Three of TCU's four-longest plays from scrimmage were TD passes to Antoine Hicks.
• Hicks was one of seven players nationally to have multiple receptions of at least 70 yards.
• Freshman tailbacks Ed Wesley and Matthew Tucker combined for four of TCU's seven-longest plays from scrimmage.

POINTS ON THE BOARD
• Prior to the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, TCU had scored at least 38 points in a school-record seven consecutive games.
• The Frogs totaled at least 30 points in 10 of 13 games last season. TCU topped 40 points seven times while scoring at least 50 points on four occasions.

MR. TOUCHDOWN
• Wide receiver Antoine Hicks had 10 touchdowns on his 32 touches last season.
• Hicks had a team-high six touchdown receptions on his 23 catches, while adding four rushing scores on only nine carries.
• The five-longest receptions of Hicks' career have been for touchdowns.
• Fullback Luke Shivers has a touchdown on four of six career touches.
• Jeremy Kerley had three touchdowns on 14 rushing attempts in addition to two punt returns for scores and two receiving touchdowns.

GOING DEEP
• A 44-yard pass from Jeremy Kerley to Bart Johnson at BYU marked Kerley's first completion since the 2007 campaign, when he completed both his attempts for 54 yards and had a 326.80 pass efficiency rating.

IN THE ZONE
• TCU was 51-of-60 (85.0 percent; 39 touchdowns, 12 field goals) on red-zone scoring opportunities last season, placing second in the MWC and tying for 36th nationally.

EXPLOSIONS
• The Frogs totaled 28 points in a 6:33 span of the first and second quarters in their 51-10 win over New Mexico. Included in that stretch were 62- and 20-yard touchdown passes to Antoine Hicks just 12 seconds apart.
• TCU scored 35 points in the opening 18:20 of the Utah game, taking a 35-7 lead with 11:40 left in the second quarter.
• The Frogs' most productive quarter was the second quarter with 174 points. The third quarter ranked second with 119 points.

DRIVE CHART
• TCU scored on its opening series five times (four touchdowns, one field goal) last season. Over the last two years, the Frogs have points on their opening possession in 15 of 26 contests.
• The Frogs' longest scoring drive of the season was 92 yards at BYU, while the longest in number of plays was 13 on three occasions.
• TCU had 12 scoring drives of at least 10 plays last season. Three came in the inclement weather at Air Force.

PROTECTION
• TCU allowed just 12 sacks last season (0.93 per game), tying for the seventh-lowest total in the nation.

BALL CARRIER DEPTH
• TCU tied for third nationally last season in having the most active players (four) with 100-yard rushing games. Nevada was the leader with six, while Buffalo was second with five.
• Marcus Jackson, Matthew Tucker, Joseph Turner and Ed Wesley all cracked the 100-yard mark for the Frogs.

MOVING THE STICKS
• The Frogs totaled 311 first downs to set a single-season school record for the second straight year. TCU had 308 in 2008.
• TCU nearly doubled its opposition in first downs (311-161) last season.
• The 32 first downs against Utah tied for the fifth-best total in TCU history. Only once in the 79 years of Amon G. Carter Stadium have the Frogs totaled more first downs in a home game (36, vs. Texas Tech, 1990).

DISTRIBUTIONS
• Wide receivers accounted for 88.6 percent (179-of-202) of TCU's receptions last season. Running backs were at 7.4 percent (15 catches). Tight ends 4.0 percent (eight grabs).

FROGS DEFENSIVE NOTES

STINGY D

• TCU topped the nation in total defense for the second straight year and fourth time in 10 seasons.

• Since the NCAA began tracking statistics in 1937, TCU is tied with Alabama and Auburn for the most No. 1 rankings in total defense at four. All four of the Horned Frogs' top marks (2000, 2002, 2008, 2009) have come under Gary Patterson. He was TCU's defensive coordinator from 1998-00 before being named head coach prior to the 2000 Mobile Alabama Bowl.

• Since 2000, TCU's first of four team defensive titles, Virginia Tech is the only other school to finish first more than once (2005, 2006). The Horned Frogs, Hokies and Miami, Fla. (1989, 1994) are the only teams to win the crown at least twice since 1989.

• TCU topped the nation in total defense (239.7 ypg.) while ranking third in run defense (80.2 ypg.) and sixth in both pass defense (159.5 ypg.) and scoring defense (12.8 ppg.).

	Team	Total Defense (Yds. PG)
1.	TCU	239.7

3.	Penn State	12.2
4.	Florida	12.4
5.	Ohio State	12.5
6.	TCU	12.8

• TCU topped the nation in allowing just 12.4 first downs per game. Alabama was second at 13.4.

• This year's average of 239.7 yards allowed was the third-lowest mark in head coach Gary Patterson's nine-year tenure.

• The 159.5 yards per game passing was 11.2 yards below the next-closest average (170.7, 2008).

IT'S THIRD DOWN

• TCU finished second in the nation in holding opponents to a 26.8 percent (52-of-194) success rate on third-down conversions.

• Texas ranked first at 26.5 percent (53-of-200).

SACK MASTERS

• TCU led the Mountain West Conference and tied for 31st nationally with its average of 2.5 sacks per game.

• Jerry Hughes (11 1/2) and Wayne Daniels (5 1/2) gave TCU 17 sacks from the defensive end position.

• TCU has at least one sack in 34 of its last 37 games.

THEN AND NOW

• Included below is a breakdown of how TCU's No. 1 defense in 2009 compared to its top-ranked unit in 2008:

	2008	2009

Wyoming	84	94	178
New Mexico	10	162	172
Boise State	77	240	317

*Tied for the ninth-lowest total in TCU history

• Five teams (Virginia, Colorado State, UNLV, Wyoming, New Mexico) were held under 200 yards.

• Only two opponents (Boise State, 317; Clemson, 309) had over 300 yards.

TAKEAWAYS

• TCU had 14 takeaways in its last five games after totaling 11 in the opening eight contests.

• Eight Frogs combined for the 14 interceptions. Tejay Johnson and Daryl Washington tied for the team lead with three.

• TCU returned three interceptions for touchdowns last season, including Washington and Rafael Priest 2:10 apart in the fourth quarter against New Mexico.

• Ten forced fumbles were recorded by nine different players, while 10 Frogs had the 11 fumble recoveries.

• Jerry Hughes led TCU with two forced fumbles, while Wayne Daniels was the lone Frog with two recoveries.

WHO'S STARTING?

• Nine players on defense made their first start in 2009: linebacker Tank Carder, defensive end Wayne Daniels, defensive tackle Cory Grant, safety Alex Ibiloye, safety Colin Jones, safety Tyler Luttrell, cornerback Greg McCoy, cornerback Jason Teague and defensive tackle D.J. Yendrey.

WORLD CHAMPION

• At the age of 10, linebacker Tank Carder captured a world championship in BMX racing. The title came in a competition outside Paris, France.

• After staking claim as the nation's best, Carder decided to retire while on top.

• Born Ricky Carder, he acquired the nickname "Tank" as a toddler when, because of his size, people mistook him for being a lot older than he actually was.

• Carder was second on TCU with 89 tackles, while his 10 pass breakups topped the Frogs and were second in the MWC.

• Carder had a career-high four tackles for loss among a personal-best 10 stops against New Mexico.

DEFENSE AT ITS BEST

• Included below is a year-by-year look at TCU under head coach Gary Patterson:

Year	Ppg.	Rushing Yards PG	Passing Yards PG	Total Defense
2001	23.4	93.8	228.7	322.5
2002	18.5	64.8*	175.4	240.2*

THREE-AND-OUTS

• TCU topped the nation last season with its average of forcing 6.5 three-and-outs per game:

	Team	Avg. PG	Total/Games
1.	TCU	6.5	84/13
2.	Alabama	5.7	80/14
3.	Ohio State	5.6	73/13
4.	Oklahoma	5.5	72/13
	Mississippi	5.5	72/13

• TCU posted a three-and-out on 46.9 percent (84-of-179) of opponent possessions.
• Over the last four games, TCU opponents went three-and-out on 35-of-59 (59.3 percent) possessions.
• The Frogs' top-three efforts of the season came in the last three regular-season games. Wyoming went three-and-out on 12-of-15 possessions (80.0 percent), New Mexico 10-of-17 (58.8 percent) and Utah 8-of-15 (53.3 percent).

MAGIC NUMBERS

• TCU is 42-3 in its last 45 games when allowing less than 333 yards of offense.
• Under Gary Patterson, TCU is 59-6 when the opponent is at or below 300 yards.
• TCU is 60-8 with Patterson when holding its opponent under 100 yards rushing.

STAYING FRESH

• TCU opponents averaged only 61.6 snaps per game last season.
• The fewest snaps against TCU were 51 by Virginia and UNLV's 52.
• Only three opponents (BYU, New Mexico and Boise State) ran more plays than TCU.

POINTS OFF THE BOARD

• Only 16 of TCU's last 26 opponents have scored in double figures.
• Just four times in the last 27 contests has TCU surrendered more than 17 points.

FROGS SHINE IN RED ZONE

• Opponents had just 13 red-zone trips in the last eight games against TCU.

• When Utah reached the TCU 10 on its second possession, it snapped a streak of 10 consecutive quarters without an opponent entering the red zone on the Frogs.

• TCU led the Mountain West Conference and tied for 15th nationally in allowing its opponents to score on only 75.0 percent (18-of-24) of its red-zone opportunities.

• TCU allowed its opposition just 62 snaps (4.8 per game) in the red zone in 2009.

• In its last 45 games, TCU has surrendered just 41 touchdowns on 99 red-zone trips.

FROG SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

SETTING THE PACE

• TCU topped the nation last season in kickoff return average (29.2 yards) while ranking 14th in punt return average (13.2 yards).

A SPECIAL ONE

• Jeremy Kerley was one of only two players (Javier Arenas, Alabama) in the nation to rank in the top seven in punt returns and the top 22 in kickoff returns. He led the MWC in both categories.
• Kerley was seventh nationally with his 14.4 punt return average. He had two returns for touchdowns.
• Kerley's 26.6 kickoff return average ranked 22nd in the nation.

THE HUMAN HIGHLIGHT FILM

• Jeremy Kerley returned two punts for touchdowns last season. His 69-yard effort against Colorado State was the Top Play of the Day on ESPN's SportsCenter and the No. 8 play for the month of October.
• When asked post-game about Kerley, TCU head coach Gary Patterson said, "He's a pretty amazing dude."
• Kerley's 71-yard punt return for a touchdown against SMU was keyed by a helmetless Tanner Brock throwing a key block.
• Prior to the Kerley punt return for a touchdown against SMU, TCU had gone 89 games without a score in that manner.

DID YOU KNOW?

• Greg McCoy, who returned a kickoff 81 yards for a touchdown at Wyoming, is from the only high school to produce two Heisman Trophy winners - Woodrow Wilson High School in Dallas.
• Davey O'Brien (TCU, 1938) and Tim Brown (Notre Dame, 1987) are also Woodrow Wilson graduates.
• McCoy averaged 35.9 yards on 10 kickoff returns.

SPARK PLUGS

• Jeremy Kerley's two punt returns for touchdowns and Greg McCoy's 81-yard kickoff return for a score at Wyoming gave TCU late first-half sparks.
• Following the three returns, the Frogs outscored their opponents 82-7 the remainder of the game.
• Kerley's 71-yard return for a score against SMU, with five minutes left in the second quarter, gave TCU a 12-7 lead en route to a 39-14 victory.
• Kerley's 69-yard touchdown versus Colorado State, with 49 seconds to play in the first half, put the Frogs on top 17-6. TCU went on to win 44-6.
• McCoy's return gave TCU a 17-10 lead with 5:44 left in the first half. It began a Frog run of 35 unanswered points.

CHASING HISTORY

• With 563 punt return yards, Jeremy Kerley set a new TCU single-season record in 2009.

Name	Punt Return Yards	Season
1. Jeremy Kerley	563	2009
2. Davey O'Brien	549	1937
3. Brian Bonner	535	2007
4. Lindy Berry	494	1947
5. Cy Leland	473	1930

A FIVE-PEAT

• TCU has had the first-team All-MWC return specialist each season it has been in the league (Cory Rodgers, 2005; Brian Bonner, 2006-07; Jeremy Kerley, 2008-09).

BLOCK PARTIES

• Greg Burks had a team-high two punt blocks last season.
• The Frogs have totaled 20 blocked kicks, including 16 punt blocks, since 2002.

TACKLE TALLIES

• As a true freshman, linebacker Tanner Brock topped TCU with 14 special teams tackles to go with a forced fumble and fumble recovery. He had a career-high three special teams stops against Utah.
• Tekerrein Cuba had a Frog season-best four special teams tackles at San Diego State, including stops on TCU's opening three kickoffs in the game.
• Listed below were TCU's special teams tackles in 2009:

Name	Tackles
Tanner Brock	14 (10 UT, 4 AT, 1 FF, 1 FR)
Tekerrein Cuba	12 (9 UT, 3 AT)

NEARLY PERFECT

• Ross Evans was 15-of-18 on field goals last season, including a season-long 48-yard effort at San Diego State.
• Evans appeared on the Lou Groza Award Watch List and was a two-time MWC Special Teams Player of the Week.
• He first won the award after the 30-14 win at Virginia, when he had a career-high three field goals (28, 25 and 32 yards).
• Evans was also cited following the 20-17 victory at Air Force when his 38- and 27-yard field goals, in frigid weather conditions, provided all of TCU's second-half scoring.
• Evans had a TCU single-season record 61 extra-points made, bettering the previous mark of 50 (Chris Kaylakie, 2000).

YES, HE'S THE PUNTER

• TCU punter Anson Kelton is a 6-foot-4, 260-pound former high school defensive end.
• Only 21 of his 59 punts last year were returned for a total of just 126 yards (6.0 avg.).
• Kelton put 19 punts inside the 20 with only one touchback.
• Kelton had arguably the top game of his TCU career in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. He averaged 48.4 yards on eight punts with three inside the 20. Included in his total were 62- and 65-yard punts for the second- and third-longest boots of his career.
• All four Kelton punts at San Diego State went inside the 20.
• Three of Kelton's six punts against Virginia were inside the 10. Consecutive punts were either fair caught or downed at the 3.
• Kelton had a career-long 72-yard punt at Air Force.

FROG TIDBITS

MAGIC NUMBER 17

• Under head coach Gary Patterson, TCU is 62-2 when allowing 17 points or less.

THE TURNOVER STORY

• Over the last five seasons, TCU is 45-1 when ahead (32-1) or even (13-0) in turnover margin and 8-10 when on the negative side.
• TCU was on the positive side in turnover margin in only three games last season and was plus-2 on the year.
• The Frogs were a season-high plus-4 at San Diego State.
• Since the start of the 2005 campaign, TCU is 53-11. In eight of the 11 defeats, the Frogs were minus-2 or worse in turnover margin.
• The Frogs have posted at least one takeaway in 58 of their last 67 contests.

BALL CONTROL

• TCU has won 41 of its last 43 games when leading in time of possession.
• TCU topped the MWC and was 17th nationally with a mark of 31:48 in 2009.
• The Frogs had a season high of 34:49 at Virginia and 34:07 against Utah.

NO FLAGS

• TCU did not commit a penalty at Wyoming, its first flag-free game since the 2007 regular-season finale at San Diego State.

PLAYING AHEAD

• TCU opened with a lead of at least 10-0 in six games last season and 17 of its last 26 contests over the last two campaigns.

SCHEDULING QUIRKS

• For the first time since 1998, Gary Patterson's first season at TCU when he served as defensive coordinator, TCU played all its regular-season games last season on Saturdays.
• It was also the first time in the modern era and only the third time overall (1896, 1898) that the Frogs' regular-season schedule featured alternating weeks of home and away games.
• TCU's first season of football was in 1896.

TIGHTENING UP ON THE ACC

• TCU twice held Clemson without points on fourth-quarter drives inside the 20.
• The Tigers were 0-for-3 on fourth-down attempts in the game.
• Virginia gained 104 of its 177 yards in the final 4:39 after TCU led 30-0.
• Three of the Cavaliers' seven first downs in the game also came in the final 4:39.

PRIVATE SCHOOLS

• TCU is one of 17 private schools in the 120-team Football Bowl Subdivision.
• The others are Baylor, Boston College, BYU, Duke, Miami (Fla.), Northwestern, Notre Dame, Rice, SMU, Stanford, Syracuse, Tulane, Tulsa, USC, Vanderbilt and Wake Forest.
• Since 2005, TCU has the second-best record among private institutions:

	Team	W-L	Pct.
1.	USC	55-9	.859
2.	TCU	53-11	.828
3.	BYU	49-15	.766
4.	Boston College	47-18	.723
5.	Tulsa	42-22	.656
6.	Wake Forest	37-26	.587
7.	Miami (Fla.)	36-26	.581
8.	Notre Dame	35-27	.565
9.	Northwestern	34-28	.548
10.	Vanderbilt	23-37	.383

PLAYING STRAIGHT THROUGH

• After being one of only two teams nationally (Florida International) to have an open date the first weekend of the season, TCU played 12 straight weeks in the regular season.
• Playing consecutively without an open date was nothing new for the Frogs.
• In 2008, TCU was one of just three teams to not have an open date through its opening 11 contests.
• With the Thursday game at Utah in 2008, TCU became the first team nationally to play 11 games.
• At 11-0 last season, 9-2 in 2008 and 10-1 in 2005, TCU is a combined 30-3 the last three times it played 11 straight weeks to begin its campaign.

QUICK HITS

• As TCU's head coach, Gary Patterson is 8-7 against ranked teams.
• TCU is 5-5 since the NCAA adopted overtime play in 1996. The Frogs' five OT wins are tied for 16th nationally.
• The Frogs are 6-5 in short-week games under Patterson.
• TCU is 18-6 in regular-season games following a loss under Patterson.
• The Frogs have never lost three in a row under Patterson.
• TCU hasn't dropped three straight since a four-game skid in the 1998 campaign.

CHECKING THE LEDGER

• After three winning seasons in 13 years (1985-97), TCU has won 74.3 percent (110-38) of its games since 1998 when head coach Gary Patterson arrived as defensive coordinator. It's the ninth-best mark nationally in that stretch.
• TCU is 569-512-57 (.525) in its football history which began in 1896.

BRING ON DAYLIGHT AND SATURDAYS

• The Frogs are 25-1 in day games over the last five seasons and 28-10 at night. The NCAA constitutes a night game as starting at 5 p.m.
• TCU is 47-4 in Saturday contests dating back to the start of the 2005 campaign and 51-5 overall when playing on any day of the week other than Thursday.
• During their run of success on Saturdays, the Frogs are 6-7 on other days of the week (1-0 on Sundays, 0-1 on Mondays, 2-0 on Tuesdays, 2-6 on Thursdays, 1-0 on Fridays).
• Six of TCU's 11 losses over the last five years have been on Thursdays.
• TCU's two wins on Tuesday both came in the Poinsettia Bowl (2006 and 2008).

FINDING THE SCOREBOARD

• At 216 games, TCU has the nation's third-longest current streak for not being shut out. The Frogs haven't been blanked since a 32-0 loss at Texas on Nov. 16, 1991:

	Team	Games	Last Shutout
1.	Michigan	323	Oct. 20, 1984 at Iowa (0-26)
2.	Florida	270	Oct. 29, 1988 vs. Auburn (0-16)
3.	TCU	216	Nov. 16, 1991 at Texas (0-32)
4.	Air Force	207	Dec. 31, 1992 vs. Mississippi (0-13)
5.	Tennessee	197	Sept. 17, 1994 vs. Florida (0-31)

• TCU's streak of 216 games without being blanked is 13th all-time. Next on the list is Hawaii in 12th place at 219 games (1976-95).
• BYU is the all-time leader at 361 contests in a row without being shut out (1975-03).

NFL DRAFT PICKS FROM MWC TEAMS

• TCU 165, San Diego State 133, BYU 132, Utah 125, Colorado State 94, Wyoming 76, New Mexico 60, UNLV 41, Air Force 7.

FROGS AND THE NFL

• In Gary Patterson's tenure as head coach, TCU has had 21 players drafted with a total of 41 in NFL camps.
• TCU led all Texas schools and tied for 10th nationally with five players selected in the 2009 NFL draft. Three Frogs were taken in a stretch of 12 picks in the sixth round.
• Fourteen former Frogs are active in the NFL:

Name	NFL Team	Years Lettered at TCU
Aaron Brown, RB	Detroit	2005-08
Quincy Butler, CB	St. Louis	2004-05
Drew Coleman, CB	New York Jets	2004-05
David Hawthorne, LB	Seattle	2004-07
Robert Henson, LB	Washington	2005-08
Stephen Hodge, LB	Dallas	2005-08
Jason Phillips, LB	Baltimore	2005-08

Aaron Schobel, DE	Buffalo	1997-00
Herb Taylor, OT	New York Giants	2003-06
LaDainian Tomlinson, RB	New York Jets	1997-00
Michael Toudouze, OT	Indianapolis	2002-05
Marvin White, S	Detroit	2005-06

FROG FASHION

• The Frogs sported a new look when they took the field Nov. 14 against Utah. TCU was one of 10 programs nationally to be selected to wear the Nike Pro Combat uniform, the lightest football uniform Nike has ever created.
• TCU also wore the uniform in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.
• The Nike Pro Combat uniform will be officially introduced in the 2010 season.

CLOSE CALLS

• Dating back to 2003, TCU is 22-9 in its last 31 contests decided by seven points or less.

PACKING THEM IN

• The crowd of 50,307 for the Nov. 14 contest with Utah set a TCU single-game home attendance record. The previous mark was 47,280 against Texas on Nov. 17, 1984.
• An estimated 7,500 filled TCU's Campus Commons earlier in the day when ESPN's College GameDay brought its show to Fort Worth.
• The 41,738 at the home finale against New Mexico gave TCU an average attendance of 46,023 for its last two home dates, above the listed capacity of 44,358 for Amon G. Carter Stadium.

DEFENDING THEIR HOME

• TCU has a 14-game home winning streak.
• Since 1999, TCU is 56-6 (.903) in its last 62 home games at Amon G. Carter Stadium.
• In their last four home dates, the Frogs allowed just five touchdowns and outscored their opponents 191-44.
• TCU allowed 211.8 yards per game in six home contests last season. The Frogs surrendered a total of 277 yards rushing (46.2 per game) on 162 attempts (1.7 per carry).
• Over its last 14 home games, TCU is allowing 47.4 yards rushing. Only 10 of the last 25 home opponents gained more than 55 yards on the ground.
• The Frogs have recorded four shutouts in their past 20 home dates.
• In its last 26 home games dating back to 2005, TCU has held its opponent to seven points or less 14 times and without a touchdown in nine contests.
• In their last 21 home games, the Frogs have outscored their opponents 834-204 (an average margin of 40-10).

BEST HOME RECORDS SINCE 2003

• TCU ranks fifth nationally in home record (37-4, .902) over the last seven seasons:

	Team	W-L	Pct.
1.	Boise State	44-1	.978
2.	Oklahoma	43-1	.977 (a 17-10 loss to TCU, 2005)
3.	USC	39-2	.951
4.	Texas	39-4	.907
5.	TCU	37-4	.902

7.	Troy	30-4	.882
8.	Virginia Tech	39-6	.867
9.	Texas Tech	38-6	.864
10.	LSU	43-7	.860

ROAD WARRIORS

• TCU's 32-14 record (.696) in road and neutral-site games since 2003 is eighth nationally.
• In 2009, the Frogs went undefeated in road games for the first time since 1955. TCU's loss in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl was on a neutral field.
• The Frogs won a pair of road games by a combined total of seven points with both contests played in inclement weather. TCU won 14-10 at Clemson (rain) and 20-17 at Air Force (ice and a wind chill in single digits).
• Two of BYU's four home losses in the last five seasons are to TCU.

	Team	W-L	Pct.
1.	USC	41-8	.837
2.	Texas	38-8	.826
3.	Boise State	37-9	.804

VERSUS THE BCS LEAGUES

• Dating back to 2002, the Frogs are 13-3 in their last 16 games against teams from conferences with automatic BCS bids.
• Included in the above total is a 5-2 mark in the past seven contests versus Big 12 opponents.
• Since Gary Patterson arrived at TCU as defensive coordinator in 1998, the Frogs are 17-8 versus teams from leagues with automatic BCS bids.
• Since 2003, TCU's 12 wins over teams from conferences with automatic BCS bids trail only Navy (16) and Utah (15).
• Beginning with a season-opening victory at Oklahoma in 2005 and concluding with a win over Baylor in 2007, TCU put together five straight triumphs over Big 12 opponents. At the time, that run of five straight victories over Big 12 foes trailed only Oklahoma (eight).
• From 2005-07, the Frogs were 5-1 in a 27-game stretch that included six games against Big 12 competition. TCU allowed an average of just 13.0 points to Big 12 opponents in that span.
• In a period of 15 games (Sept. 3, 2005 - Sept. 16, 2006), TCU went 4-0 against the Big 12. Only Texas, Texas Tech, Oklahoma and Colorado won more games against Big 12 opponents in that stretch.
• Included below are TCU's games, since 1998, versus opponents from conferences with automatic BCS bids:

Date	Opponent	Result	Site
Sept. 5, 1998	Iowa State	W, 31-21	Away

THE BCS

• TCU was fourth in the final 2009 BCS standings for the highest ranking ever by a team from a conference without an automatic bid.
• Prior to this season, TCU's previous high-water mark in the BCS standings was No. 6 in 2003.
• The Frogs (36) are second behind only Boise State (42) for most appearances in the BCS standings by a school playing in a conference without an automatic BCS bid.
• TCU was 11th in the final 2008 BCS standings.
• If the current BCS rules were in effect in 2005, TCU would have been in a BCS bowl. The Frogs were ahead of automatic qualifier Florida State.

JUST ABOUT THE BEST IN TEXAS

• Since 2005, TCU has the second-best record among the 10 Football Bowl Subdivision teams in Texas:

	Team	W-L	Pct.
1.	Texas	57-8	.877
2.	TCU	53-11	.828
3.	Texas Tech	45-18	.714

8.	SMU	21-39	.350
9.	Baylor	20-39	.339
10.	North Texas	10-49	.169

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

• TCU was recognized in 2009 by the American Football Coaches Association for graduating 75 percent or more of its freshman football student-athlete class of 2002.

GOING BOWLING

• Since Gary Patterson has been at TCU, the Frogs are one of only 14 teams to play in at least 11 bowl games the last 12 campaigns:

12 - Florida, Florida State, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Texas, Virginia Tech

11 - TCU, Boston College, Miami (Fla.), Ohio State, Oklahoma, Oregon, Southern Miss, Wisconsin

STACKING UP IN THE MOUNTAIN WEST

• TCU has the top overall and league winning percentage in Mountain West Conference history.

2010 SPRING OUTLOOK

OFFENSE
TCU returns nine starters from a 2009 offensive unit that ranked fifth in the country in scoring (38.3 points per game) and rushing (239.5 yards per game) while placing seventh in total offense (456.7 yards per game). The Horned Frogs set single-season school records for points scored (498) and total offense (5,937 yards). The TCU offense has seven returning All-Mountain West Conference players, including a pair of All-Americans in quarterback Andy Dalton and center Jake Kirkpatrick.

Andy Dalton

QUARTERBACK
Andy Dalton (6-3, 215, Sr.) will be in his fourth year as TCU's starting quarterback.

CBSSports.com senior writer Dennis Dodd wrote, "Andy Dalton should start near the top of Heisman lists."

Dalton was the 2009 Mountain West Conference Offensive Player of the Year while appearing on multiple All-America teams. He was one of 10 finalists for the Manning Award, recognizing the nation's top quarterback.

Dalton is tied with Slingin' Sammy Baugh (1934-36) for the most career victories (29) by a starting quarterback at TCU.

Dalton ranked eighth in the nation in passing efficiency in 2009 with a 151.8 rating. He set a single-season TCU record with 2,756 yards passing, while his 61.6 completion percentage and 23 touchdown passes placed second.

The Katy, Texas, native ranked fourth on TCU in 2009 with 512 yards rushing on a 4.4 per carry mark. He ran for 88 and 86 yards, respectively, in road wins at Wyoming and Clemson.

The Horned Frogs' all-time leader in passing yards with 7,457, Dalton ranks second with 603 completions, 44 touchdown passes and a 60.2 completion percentage.

Dalton, a two-time bowl game Most Valuable Player, is also second in TCU history for the lowest interception percentage at 2.4 (24 picks in 1,001 pass attempts). It's a mark that ranks third among active quarterbacks in the NCAA.

Yogi Gallegos (6-1, 208, So.) and Casey Pachall (6-5, 204, RFr.) will battle for the No. 2 spot on the depth chart.

Gallegos saw limited action in two games last season. He completed 60.5 percent of his passes for 2,401 yards and 15 touchdowns as a senior at Irving (Texas) High School.

Pachall redshirted in 2009. As TCU's emergency No. 3 quarterback, he did gain valuable experience as a member of the Horned Frogs' travel squad for each game.

Pachall had a decorated prep career at Brownwood (Texas) High School. He arrived at TCU after turning down scholarship offers from the likes of Florida, Notre Dame and Michigan.

RUNNING BACK
Despite the top-five running backs on TCU's depth chart being freshmen and sophomores, there is experience at the position.

Matthew Tucker (6-1, 210, So.) and Ed Wesley (5-9, 185, So.) had stellar rookie campaigns in 2009, placing second and third on TCU in rushing with 676 and 638 yards, respectively. The totals represent the fifth- and sixth-best seasons by a freshman in TCU history.

Sporting News tabbed Tucker as the Mountain West Conference Freshman of the Year. His top-five rushing games of the season came in the last five regular-season contests, including a 134-yard effort and two touchdowns at Wyoming. A true freshman, Tucker placed second on TCU with eight rushing touchdowns while averaging 6.4 yards per carry.

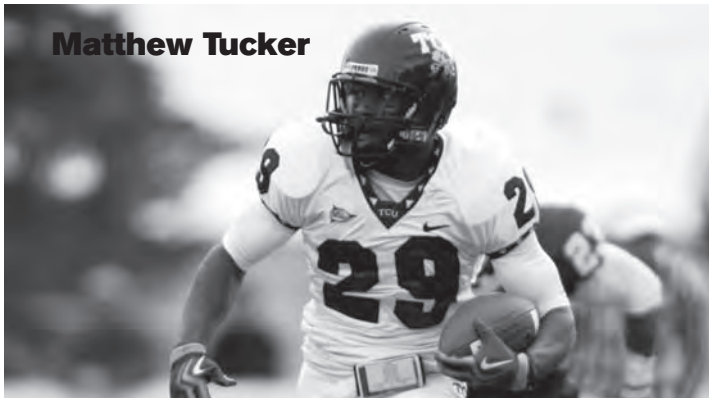
Wesley, an honorable-mention All-Mountain West Conference selection, took part in three of the Horned Frogs' six-longest plays from scrimmage in 2009. The Irving, Texas, native ran for a TCU season-high 137 yards in a 55-28 win over Utah. In addition to rushing for four touchdowns on the year, Wesley had three scores on his eight receptions for 170 yards (21.2 average).

Waymon James (5-8, 203, RFr.), a four-star recruit, will compete for playing time after redshirting in 2009. Coming out of Sherman High School, James was ranked by Rivals.com as the second-best running back in Texas and the 10th-best back in the nation. James rushed for 1,939 yards and 26 touchdowns as a senior.

Another talented newcomer in the running back mix this spring is Dwight Smith (5-10, 218, Fr.). A Texas 3A Player of the Year, Smith rushed for 2,820 yards and 43 touchdowns as a senior in 2008 for Carthage High School. Smith enrolled at TCU for the Spring 2010 semester.

Aundre Dean (6-0, 215, So.), a Parade All-American at running back for Katy High School, where he was a teammate of TCU quarterback Andy Dalton, could also see time at tailback. He'll enter the spring as a strong safety for the Horned Frogs.

Luke Shivers (6-0, 220, Jr.) is the returning starter at fullback. Also utilized some at tight end, Shivers has scored four touchdowns on just six career touches.



Matthew Tucker

2010 SPRING OUTLOOK

WIDE RECEIVER
TCU returns all but one wide receiver from last year's team and has a trio of All-Mountain West Conference selections in Jeremy Kerley (5-10, 192, Sr.), Jimmy Young (6-1, 204, Sr.) and Antoine Hicks (6-2, 200, Jr.).

Kerley, also the MWC Special Teams Player of the Year, topped TCU with 44 receptions last season, more than doubling the combined total of 20 catches from his first two seasons. Kerley closed the 2009 campaign with a career-high six receptions in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

A native of Hutto, Texas, Kerley led the Horned Frogs and the MWC in all-purpose yards with 1,624 (124.9 per game).

Young tied for second on TCU with 33 receptions for 517 yards, moving him into eighth place on TCU's career list with 115 catches. He's seventh all-time in receiving yards with 1,830. Young's top effort in the 2009 campaign came at Air Force, when he had six catches for 113 yards on a frozen field in a single-digit wind chill game temperature.

Hicks emerged as a big-play threat for the Horned Frogs. He had 10 touchdowns (six receiving, four rushing) on just 32 touches. The Arlington, Texas, native was involved in three of TCU's four-longest plays from scrimmage. He had back-to-back games with 75-yard touchdown catches against BYU and UNLV, making him one of just seven players nationally to have two receptions of at least 70 yards on the season. Hicks had 62- and 20-yard touchdown catches just 12 seconds apart against New Mexico. His five-longest receptions of the season went for scores.

Veteran Bart Johnson (6-0, 195, Sr.) is the starter at the "H" receiver. Johnson tied for second with 33 receptions last season, surpassing the combined total of 21 from his first two seasons. He had at least one catch in every game to extend his team-best streak to 22 contests in a row with a reception.

Curtis Clay (6-1, 185, Sr.) had a breakout season in 2009 with 18 receptions for 241 yards, including key touchdowns versus Clemson and Boise State.

Skye Dawson (5-10, 175, So.), a sprinter on the TCU track and field team, is arguably the fastest member of the Horned Frogs. He burst on the scene in the middle of the season and finished as TCU's fifth-leading rusher with 111 yards on an 8.5 per carry mark.

Josh Boyce (5-11, 195, RFr.) is a promising young receiver who redshirted in 2009. Boyce, a teammate of Logan Brock and Tanner Brock at Copperas Cove (Texas) High School, was an early enrollee last spring.

TIGHT END
All of TCU's tight ends from last season return in 2010.

Evan Frosch (6-4, 260, Sr.) was an honorable-mention All-Mountain West Conference selection in his first season as a full-time starter.

Logan Brock (6-3, 253, Jr.) topped all TCU tight ends with five catches for 67 yards. All of his receptions came in road games.

Corey Fuller (6-5, 245, So.) and Robert Deck (6-4, 255, Jr.) are returning lettermen who also figure prominently in the mix for playing time.

OFFENSIVE LINE
The Horned Frogs return four starters on the offensive line, including first-team All-America center Jake Kirkpatrick (6-3, 305, Sr.) and first-team All-Mountain West Conference tackle Marcus Cannon (6-5, 350, Sr.).

Kirkpatrick was one of six finalists for the 2009 Rimington Trophy, honoring the nation's top center. He's the only one of the six returning this season.

Kirkpatrick, who never played football until his senior year of high school, sets the blocking scheme on each play.

Cannon is coming off a dominant season in which he did not allow a sack. The largest member of the Horned Frogs and an outstanding athlete, Cannon is also an All-MWC selection in the shot put for the TCU track and field team.

A native of Odesssa, Texas, Cannon has been named a Top 10 Workout Warrior by ESPN.com. Mel Kiper Jr. has Cannon ranked as the nation's No. 3 offensive tackle available for the 2011 NFL draft.

Kyle Dooley (6-3, 315, Jr.) and Josh Vernon (6-2, 295, Sr.) are returning starters at left and right guard, respectively. Dooley came to TCU as a walk-on.

Blaize Foltz (6-4, 310, So.) filled in for an injured Vernon and started at right guard in victories over BYU and UNLV. He has a very bright future and will compete for a starting job.

Ty Horn (6-5, 295, RFr.), a 2009 redshirt, also figures into the mix at guard and tackle.

Zach Roth (6-4, 295, Sr.) enters the spring as a projected starter at left tackle, a position occupied the last three seasons by NFL-bound Marshall Newhouse.

Roth played in three games before being sidelined for the season. Pushing Roth will be James Dunbar (6-6, 305, RFr.).

Backing up Cannon on the right side is John Wooldridge (6-5, 285, RFr.) and Spencer Thompson (6-4, 305, Jr.). Woodridge redshirted last season, while Thompson lettered as he saw action in seven contests.

Eric Tausch (6-3, 285, RFr.), another redshirt and part of the impressive offensive line recruiting class in 2009, is behind Kirkpatrick at center. Adding depth at the position is James Fry (6-3, 285, So.).

2010 SPRING OUTLOOK

DEFENSE
TCU has posted the nation's top-ranked defense each of the last two seasons and four times since 2000. Since the NCAA began tracking statistics in 1937, TCU is tied with Alabama and Auburn for the most No. 1 rankings in total defense at four. All four of the Horned Frogs' top marks (2000, 2002, 2008, 2009) are under Gary Patterson. The Horned Frogs have seven defensive starters returning this season.

DEFENSIVE LINE
Despite the loss to graduation of two-time consensus All-America defensive end Jerry Hughes, TCU returns three of four starters on its defensive line.

Wayne Daniels (6-2, 250, Sr.) is back at right end after a solid 2009 campaign saw him earn All-Mountain West Conference honors.

Daniels' 5 ½ sacks trailed only Hughes. He was fourth with nine tackles for loss while placing sixth with 50 stops, including a career-high eight in the 14-10 win at Clemson.

Clarence Leatch (6-4, 245, Sr.) and Ross Forrest (6-4, 246, So.) are behind Daniels on the depth chart.

Leatch is a three-year letterman who had a pair of sacks last season. Forrest played as a true freshman walk-on in 2008. He suffered a season-ending injury in the opener at Virginia last year and received a medical hardship.

Braylon Broughton (6-6, 272, Jr.) will enter the spring as the starter at left end. Broughton saw increased action over the latter stages of the 2009 campaign. Four of his eight stops on the year came in the final two regular-season contests.

D.J. Yendrey (6-4, 262, So.), who lettered as a true freshman at defensive tackle last season, will move to the outside and enter the spring No. 2 on the depth chart at left end.

Yendrey made an immediate impact for the Horned Frogs with a sack at Virginia in his first collegiate game. He became just the second true freshman in the nine-year Gary Patterson head coaching era to start when he received the nod in a 41-0 victory over UNLV.

Cory Grant & Kelly Griffin

Jon Koontz (6-2, 230, RFr.) has had a very good offseason and will compete for playing time at defensive end.

Veterans Cory Grant (6-2, 303, Sr.) and Kelly Griffin (6-1, 295, Sr.) are returning starters at defensive tackle and nose tackle, respectively.

Grant was a second-team All-Mountain West Conference selection in his first year as a starter. He tied for fifth on the Horned Frogs with 5 ½ tackles for loss, including two sacks in the 38-7 win at BYU.

Griffin returned to the starting lineup in 2009 after starting as a true freshman in 2007. He also had 5 ½ stops behind the line of scrimmage.

Stansly Maponga (6-2, 240, RFr.), who came to TCU as a defensive end, will move to defensive tackle this spring. He'll be in competition with early enrollee David Johnson (6-2, 270, Fr.) and Bryant House (6-4, 267, RFr.).

Jeremy Coleman (6-2, 285, So.) is No. 2 at nose tackle behind Griffin. Coleman had two sacks in lettering in a reserve role last season. Ray Burns (6-1, 300, RFr.) adds depth after a redshirt campaign in 2009.

House and Burns, like offensive tackle James Dunbar, are graduates of Maud (Texas) High School.

LINEBACKER
While Tank Carder (6-3, 232, Jr.) is set as one linebacker in TCU's 4-2-5 scheme, the other spot will see open competition in the spring.

Carder was a second-team All-Mountain West Conference selection in his first season as a starter. He ranked second on TCU with 89 stops and 10 tackles for loss. The 89 stops were 19 more than the next-closest Horned Frog (Alex Ibiloye, 70).

A native of Sweeny, Texas, Carder topped TCU while tying for second in the MWC with 10 pass breakups. He received MWC Defensive Player of the Week accolades following a win over Utah when he totaled nine tackles, including one for loss, while returning an interception 15 yards for a touchdown. The performance earned him a Helmet Sticker from ESPN's Rece Davis.

Greg Burks (6-1, 222, So.) adds depth behind Carder. Burks was a special teams standout last season, recording both of TCU's punt blocks.

Tanner Brock (6-3, 233, So.) enters the spring in a No. 1 position opposite Carder. Brock earned Freshman All-American honors last season as he topped all TCU rookies with 32 tackles, including a team-best 14 on special teams.

Brock received national attention for his helmetless block on Jeremy Kerley's 71-yard punt return for a touchdown against SMU. After losing his helmet earlier in the play, he delivered a hard hit on a Mustang to spring Kerley loose.

Kris Gardner (6-1, 235, Jr.) and Kenny Cain (6-1, 220, So.) will push Brock for playing time.

Eight of Gardner's 19 tackles last season came on special teams. The eight stops tied for third on TCU. Cain lettered as a true freshman in 2009. Most of his action also came on special teams.

2010 SPRING OUTLOOK

CORNERBACK
Even though four-year starters Rafael Priest and Nick Sanders have left TCU with degrees in hand, the cornerback position is still in good hands with experienced players in Greg McCoy (5-10, 181, Jr.) and Jason Teague (6-2, 197, Sr.).

McCoy and Teague both had two interceptions and made starts last season when Priest and Sanders were injured.

McCoy is among the fastest Horned Frogs on the roster. He made an impact in both his starts a year ago. In the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, McCoy totaled a career-high seven tackles. His first collegiate start saw him record an interception at San Diego State.

McCoy also left his mark on special teams. He returned a kickoff 81 yards for a touchdown at Wyoming.

Teague started two games in place of Sanders. An original signee of LSU, Teague has outstanding size at the corner position. He equaled a season high with four tackles to go with a pass breakup in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

Malcolm Williams (5-10, 200, Sr.), a four-star recruit as a junior college transfer last season, will move from safety to cornerback this spring. He totaled 10 tackles in 2009.

Travaras Battle-Smith (5-10, 175, Fr.) is an early enrollee who will participate in spring drills and look to impress at cornerback.

Tejay Johnson

SAFETY
TCU returns all three starting safeties in free safety Tejay Johnson (6-1, 212, Sr.), weak safety Alex Ibiloye (6-0, 183, Sr.) and strong safety Tyler Luttrell (6-1, 210, Sr.). All three were at new positions in 2009.

Johnson was a second-team All-Mountain West Conference selection. He tied for the TCU lead with three interceptions and placed fourth with 59 tackles, including a career-best and TCU season-high 14 stops in the 38-7 win at BYU.

Johnson drew praise from TCU head coach Gary Patterson for his leadership in the secondary. He successfully made the transition to free safety after being at weak safety in 2008.

Johnny Fobbs (6-1, 203, Jr.) and Trenton Thomas (6-0, 190, RFr.) will back up Johnson. Fobbs lettered last season, while Thomas was a redshirt.

Ibiloye was moved from cornerback last spring. He ranked third on TCU with a career-best 70 tackles, nearly four times the total from his first two seasons combined (19).

Luttrell was switched from wide receiver midway through fall camp and was in the starting lineup, recording a sack, weeks later in the season-opening victory at Virginia. He placed seventh on TCU with 35 stops. His diving interception at San Diego State was one of the Top Plays of the Day on ESPN.

Pushing Luttrell will be Jurell Thompson (5-11, 200, So.), Aundre Dean (6-0, 215, So.) and Chris Scott (5-10, 185, So.).

Thompson and Scott are returning lettermen. Dean will be making the move from tailback. He was utilized some at safety in practices last season. Dean was a Parade All-American at running back for Katy (Texas) High School before playing at UCLA as a true freshman in 2008.

Colin Jones (6-0, 205, Sr.) will push to be a starter at either weak or strong safety. He was limited to seven games last season due to injury. Jones had a career-high nine tackles to go with a quarterback hurry in the 38-7 win at BYU.

Tekerrein Cuba (6-4, 210, Jr.) is also at weak safety. He started two games last season and totaled 21 tackles on the year.

SPECIAL TEAMS
All-American Jeremy Kerley (5-10, 192, Sr.) headlines a strong special teams unit for TCU.

Kerley returned two punts for touchdowns last season. Both scores received major play on ESPN and other national outlets. Kerley topped the Mountain West Conference in punt (14.4 yards) and kickoff (26.6 yards) return average in being named the league's Special Teams Player of the Year.

Kerley's 563 punt return yards set a TCU single-season record, breaking Davey O'Brien's 1937 mark of 549.

Greg McCoy (5-10, 181, Jr.) also left his mark on the return game with an 81-yard kickoff return for a touchdown at Wyoming.

TCU has had the first-team All-MWC return specialist all five seasons it has been in the league. Kerley has received the honor each of the last two years.

Placekicker Ross Evans (5-9, 185, Jr.) and punter Anson Kelton (6-4, 260, Jr.) will both be in their third season as starters.

Evans was a first-team All-MWC selection. He was 15-of-18 on field goals while setting a TCU single-season record with 61 extra-points made, including 38 in a row to close the year. Evans topped the MWC in scoring with 106 points. He'll be a candidate for the Lou Groza Award in 2010.

Kelton placed 19 punts inside the opponent 20 with just one touchback on the season. The lone touchback barely crossed the goal line in the third quarter of the regular-season finale against New Mexico. Only 21 of his 59 punts were returned for a total of 126 yards (6.0 average). He had an outstanding game in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, averaging a season-best 48.4 yards with three kicks downed inside the 20.

Kevin Sharples (5-9, 185, Sr.) returns as the Horned Frogs' kickoff specialist.

With the graduation of standout Clint Gresham, TCU will look to find a deep snapper this spring. Gresham was the only snapper invited to the 2010 NFL Combine.

Since taking over the helm of the Horned Frogs in December 2000, Gary Patterson has become synonymous with TCU football.

In 2009, Patterson guided the Horned Frogs to a 12-1 record, No. 6 national ranking and their first BCS appearance. In the process, Patterson was selected for nine national coaching honors.

Patterson was named National Coach of the Year by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association and Sporting News while also receiving the Bobby Dodd Award, Eddie Robinson Award, Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award, George Munger Award and Woody Hayes Award.

The No. 6 ranking in season-ending polls by the Associated Press and USA Today gave the Frogs their second straight top-10 finish and third in the last five years. TCU had its highest season-ending ranking since 1955, when it was also sixth, and has posted back-to-back top-10 appearances in final polls for the first time since the 1958-59 campaigns. The Frogs finished seventh in 2008.

In 2009, TCU posted just the second 12-win season in its history, matched only by its 1935 national championship team which also went 12-1. The Frogs had their first undefeated regular season since their 1938 national championship campaign.

TCU topped the nation in total defense for the second straight year and fourth time in 10 seasons. Despite losing seven starters to graduation, including three to the NFL, off 2008's No. 1 defense, the Frogs again led the nation by allowing just 239.7 yards per game.

Since the NCAA began tracking statistics in 1937, TCU is tied with Alabama and Auburn for the most No. 1 rankings in total defense at four. All four of the Frogs' top marks (2000, 2002, 2008, 2009) have come under Patterson.

Since 2000, TCU's first of four team defensive titles, Virginia Tech is the only other school to finish first more than once (2005, 2006). The Frogs, Hokies and Miami, Fla. (1989, 1994) are the only teams to win the crown at least twice since 1989.

TCU and Florida were the only schools in 2009 to rank in the top 10 nationally in total offense and defense. The Frogs were seventh offensively at 456.7 yards per game.

The dean of Mountain West Conference coaches, Patterson has led TCU to at least 10 wins six times in the last eight years, including five 11-win campaigns since 2003. No other coach in TCU history has more than two 10-win campaigns.

Patterson's 85-28 (.752) record is the best mark of the four coaches at TCU to be on the sldeline for at least 100 games. Patterson's 85 wins are second on the Frogs' career victory list, trailing only Dutch Meyer (109-79-13, .575). Meyer coached TCU to its 1935 and 1938 national championships.

Patterson's .752 winning percentage is second among TCU coaches with more than 20 games under their belt and fourth among active coaches (minimum five years) in the Football Bowl Subdivision.

The Frogs have won five conference titles with Patterson on staff in addition to posting seven of the school's 11 10-win seasons. He was TCU's defensive coordinator from 1998-00.

During his 12 years on campus, Patterson has seen TCU make 11 bowl appearances. From 2005-08, Patterson led the Frogs to four straight bowl victories for the first time in school history. During that stretch, TCU was one of just seven schools nationally to have a current bowl winning streak of at least four in a row.

TCU is 7-4 in bowl games with Patterson on its coaching staff and 5-4 with him as head coach. Prior to Patterson's arrival on campus in 1998, the Frogs had just four bowl wins in their history.

HEAD COACH GARY PATTERSON

The Frogs are 13-3 in their last 16 games against teams from leagues with automatic BCS bids, including a 5-2 mark versus the Big 12 the past four seasons.

The Frogs were fourth in the final BCS standings in 2009, marking the highest appearance ever by a team from a non-automatic qualifying conference. TCU has appeared in the BCS standings 36 times, trailing only Boise State (42) for the most among schools from a non-automatic qualifying conference.

In nine seasons as a head coach, Patterson has coached 113 All-Conference selections, seven All-Americans, 11 Freshman All-Americans and one Academic All-American.

In four of its first five seasons in the Mountain West, TCU has set the pace on the all-conference teams. The Frogs had a school-record 20 selections in 2009, 18 in 2005 and 2008, 14 in 2006 and 11 in 2007.

As TCU's head coach, Patterson has had 21 players drafted with a total of 41 in NFL camps.

Patterson's defensive acumen dates back to his own playing days at Kansas State, where he played strong safety and outside linebacker for the Wildcats in 1980 and 1981.

He served as a graduate assistant in 1982 and received his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1983. He took the linebacker coaching position at Tennessee Tech while earning a master's degree in educational administration in 1984.

Patterson has been part of 14 bowl staffs, including one each with Kansas State, Utah State and New Mexico. The other 11 have come at TCU. Aside from being an accomplished Division I head coach, Patterson is also a skilled guitar player. On several occasions, Patterson has entertained TCU fans with his guitar skills at pep rallies around the Fort Worth area.

A native of Rozel, Kansas, Patterson is married to the former Kelsey Hayes. He has three sons: Josh, Cade and Blake.

JARRETT ANDERSON

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ RUNNING BACKS

13th SEASON AT TCU
NEW MEXICO, '93

After coming to TCU as a graduate assistant, Jarrett Anderson is in his 13th year overall with the Horned Frogs.

In February 2009, Anderson was promoted to co-offensive coordinator. He also became the running backs coach after serving as wide receivers coach the previous eight seasons.

Anderson helped direct a record-setting TCU offense in 2009 as the Frogs set single-season school records with 498 points and 5,937 yards of total offense.

TCU ranked fifth nationally in scoring offense (38.3 points per game) and rushing (239.5 yards per game), seventh in total offense (456.7 yards per game) and eighth in passing efficiency (154.1).

Anderson helped mentor freshman tailbacks Matthew Tucker and Ed Wesley into being the Frogs' second- and third-leading rushers with 676 and 638 yards, respectively.

In 2008, sophomore Jimmy Young became the first TCU wide receiver to be named All-Mountain West Conference in the Frogs' four years in the league. Young had 988 yards receiving to narrowly miss just the second 1,000-yard season in TCU history. His 59 receptions tied for the fourth-best total on the Frogs' single-season chart.

Under Anderson's tutelage, three TCU receivers in the last seven years were drafted by NFL teams.

Cory Rodgers was a fourth-round pick by Green Bay in 2006, while Adrian Madise and LaTarence Dunbar were selected in the fifth and sixth rounds in 2003 by Denver and Atlanta, respectively. All three finished their careers in the top 10 of various TCU receiving categories.

Reggie Harrell, who signed as a free agent with Dallas, became the school's first 1,000-yard receiver in 2003 with the Horned Frogs.

During his three-year career, Rodgers tied Mike Renfro's career TCU mark of 17 receiving touchdowns.

Both Harrell and Rodgers rank among the top 10 in school history in career receptions and yards while earning all-conference recognition.

In 2006, Quentily Harmon closed his career as TCU's ninth-leading receiver with 111 catches. In addition, Michael DePriest was signed as a free-agent in 2007 by Indianapolis.

Prior to assuming his current duties, Anderson served on the TCU coaching staff as a graduate assistant from 1998-00, working primarily with the Frogs' offensive line.

Anderson spent one season (1997) as an assistant coach at Tyler Junior College, where he worked with the running backs and receivers. He began his collegiate playing career at Tyler before transferring to New Mexico. He lettered for the Lobos in both 1992 and 1993.

Anderson graduated from New Mexico in 1993 with a bachelor's degree in university studies and earned a master's degree in TCU's MLA program.

Anderson and his wife, Lisa, have two sons: Aidan and Eli.

DICK BUMPAS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ DEFENSIVE LINE

SEVENTH SEASON AT TCU
ARKANSAS, '73

Dick Bumpas joined TCU in February 2004 as the defensive coordinator and defensive line coach.

Bumpas first worked with Horned Frog coach Gary Patterson at Kansas State in the early 1980s. He was the Wildcats' defensive line coach in 1981 when Patterson was a senior linebacker. Patterson then became a Kansas State graduate assistant in 1982 and joined Bumpas on staff.

The duo also worked together at Utah State from 1992-94 and at Navy in 1995. At both places, Bumpas was the defensive coordinator while Patterson was the secondary coach.

Bumpas has been one of five finalists for the Broyles Award, recognizing the nation's top assistant coach, each of the last two seasons.

Bumpas mentored Horned Frog defensive end Jerry Hughes into being a two-time consensus All-American and the 2009 recipient of the Ted Hendricks Award and Lott Trophy. Hughes, who had never played on defense until arriving at TCU, was also a finalist for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy and Rotary Lombardi Award.

In addition to Hughes, a two-time Mountain West Conference Defensive Player of the Year, TCU's defensive line was represented on the 2009 All-MWC team by second-team selections Wayne Daniels and Cory Grant.

Bumpas has won championships in four different conferences during his career and coached at all three service academies. He has also coached in 15 bowl games.

A native of Fort Smith, Ark., Bumpas received three varsity letters and was a captain for the Razorbacks. He was named SWC Defensive Player of the Year in 1970, earning consensus All-America honors at defensive tackle. He received a Bachelor's degree in education from Arkansas in 1973. He went on to play tight end and linebacker professionally for the Memphis Southmen in the World Football League and the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League.

Bumpas was a 2006 inductee into the University of Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor. He is married to the former Gloria Surratt.

RUSTY BURNS

WIDE RECEIVERS

SECOND SEASON AT TCU
SPRINGFIELD, '78

Rusty Burns joined the TCU staff as wide receivers coach in February 2009.

In his first season with the Horned Frogs, four of TCU's top-six receivers posted reception totals that surpassed their career numbers entering the season. Three TCU receivers, Antoine Hicks, Jeremy Kerley and Jimmy Young, were named All-Mountain West Conference.

Burns most recently spent four seasons (2004-07) as the offensive coordinator at SMU. The Mustangs set a school record with 29 touchdown passes in 2006, while their 325 points scored ranked third all-time in SMU history.

Burns has also been an offensive coordinator at Cincinnati (2002-03), Wyoming (1999-01), Memphis (1996-98) and Connecticut (1980-88).

At Cincinnati, Burns directed a record-setting offensive attack in 2002 that helped lead the Bearcats to the Conference USA championship. Cincinnati set school marks for passing yards (3,649 yards), total offense (5,565 yards) and points (409). The Bearcats led C-USA in passing (260.6) and total offense (397.5) per game.

It was Burns' second stint at Cincinnati. He was the Bearcats' quarterbacks coach from 1989-91. Burns also served three seasons (1992-94) as an assistant coach at Georgia Tech.

In his final year at Wyoming, Burns had the most improved offense in the Mountain West Conference.

Burns is a 1978 graduate of Springfield College, where he played quarterback. He also has a master's degree from Springfield. His first coaching position came at his alma mater as he served two seasons as offensive coordinator upon his graduation.

Burns and his wife, Debra, have two daughters: Kelly and Kirsten.

JUSTIN FUENTE

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ QUARTERBACKS

FOURTH SEASON AT TCU
MURRAY STATE, '99

Justin Fuente joined the TCU football coaching staff in February 2007 as running backs coach and was promoted to co-offensive coordinator in February 2009. As part of his new duties, he moved from running backs to quarterbacks coach.

In his first season as co-offensive coordinator, Fuente helped lead a record-setting TCU attack in 2009. The Frogs set single-season school records with 498 points and 5,937 yards of total offense.

TCU ranked fifth nationally in scoring offense (38.3 points per game) and rushing (239.5 yards per game), seventh in total offense (456.7 yards per game) and eighth in passing efficiency (154.1).

Under Fuente's tutelage, TCU quarterback Andy Dalton received Mountain West Conference Offensive Player of the Year and All-America honors. Dalton was also one of 10 finalists for the Manning Award, presented to the nation's top quarterback.

The Horned Frogs defined running back by committee in 2008. TCU ranked 12th nationally in rushing despite not having a player in the top-96 individually. TCU's 220.2 yards per game rushing was its highest mark since 2000, when LaDainian Tomlinson keyed a Frog ground attack that averaged 275.6 per game.

Fuente coached tailback Aaron Brown into being a sixth-round selection by the Detroit Lions in the 2009 NFL draft.

Fuente came to TCU after spending the previous six seasons as quarterbacks coach at Illinois State. His final three years saw him double as the Redbirds' offensive coordinator.

Fuente played two seasons (1996-97) at Oklahoma under former TCU quarterbacks coach and then-Sooners offensive coordinator Dick Winder. Fuente set an Oklahoma freshman record with 11 touchdown passes. He transferred to Murray State for his final two years of eligibility.

Fuente set 11 school records at Murray State, including total offense and passing yards in a game and season. He was the Ohio Valley Conference Offensive Player of the Year and a finalist for the Walter Payton Award, given annually to the nation's top player in Division I-AA.

Under Fuente's direction, Illinois State ranked in the top 10 nationally in total offense in 2005 and 2006. The Redbirds placed eighth in 2006 with an average of 397.5 yards per game after ranking fifth in both total offense (477.6 yards) and scoring (39.2 points) in 2005.

Fuente coached Redbird quarterback Luke Drone to first-team All-Gateway Conference honors as he led the league in passing (227.8 yards) and total offense (231.6 yards). Running back Pierre Rembert set an Illinois State single-season record while ranking sixth nationally in rushing with 1,743 yards (134.1 per game).

Following his collegiate career, Fuente played professionally with the Oklahoma Wranglers in the Arena League. A 1999 graduate of Murray State, Fuente is a native of Tulsa, Okla.

Fuente and his wife, Jenny, have a daughter: Cecilia Mae.

CHAD GLASGOW

SAFETIES

10TH SEASON AT TCU
OKLAHOMA STATE, '95

Chad Glasgow, a member of Gary Patterson's first staff at TCU, is in his 10th year as the Horned Frogs' safeties coach.

After the graduation of two of three starters at safety from 2008's top-ranked defense, Glasgow directed a unit that again helped TCU rank No. 1 in the country for total defense.

With Tejay Johnson being a second-team All-Mountain West Conference selection in 2009, Glasgow has coached 12 all-conference picks at safety for TCU.

Four TCU safeties in the last three years have signed National Football League contracts.

Stephen Hodge, who led the nation in sacks by a defensive back with eight in 2007, was a sixth-round draft pick by the Dallas Cowboys in 2009.

Hodge and David Roach earned All-MWC honors in 2007. Roach and Brian Bonner signed 2008 free-agent contracts with the New Orleans Saints and San Diego Chargers, respectively.

In 2006, Marvin White was first-team All-MWC and later a fourth-round draft pick of the Cincinnati Bengals. Bonner was a second-team selection.

White and Jeremy Modkins were All-MWC in 2005.

Since arriving at TCU, Glasgow also tutored all-conference safeties Kenneth Hilliard, a free-agent signee with the Buffalo Bills, and Marvin Godbolt, who inked a professional contract in the Canadian Football League.

Glasgow coached safeties, including 2000 Southland Conference Player of the Year C.J. Carroll, at Southwest Texas State from 1998-00.

Prior to his stint at Southwest Texas State, Glasgow spent one year at Illinois State as the linebackers coach.

Glasgow also had coaching stops as a graduate assistant at both Oklahoma State (1994-95) under Bob Simmons and New Mexico (1996) with Dennis Franchione. Patterson was the Lobos' defensive coordinator that season.

A three-year letterwinner, Glasgow played linebacker at Oklahoma State. He earned a bachelor's degree from OSU in business administration in 1995.

Glasgow and his wife, Maida, were married in March 2010.

CLAY JENNINGS

CORNERBACKS

THIRD SEASON AT TCU
NORTH TEXAS, '96

Clay Jennings joined the TCU football staff as cornerbacks coach in January 2008.

Both Rafael Priest and Nick Sanders were first-team All-Mountain West Conference selections in 2009. Priest was ranked by Rivals.com as the nation's sixth-best cornerback, while Sanders was tabbed the MWC's hardest hitter by Sporting News.

In 2008, Priest was second-team All-MWC with Sanders an honorable-mention pick.

Jennings, who has coached five current NFL defensive backs, came to the Horned Frogs after serving as the cornerbacks coach at Baylor in 2007.

Jennings worked two seasons (2005-06) as safeties coach at Houston. He helped the Cougars to back-to-back bowl appearances and the 2006 Conference USA championship. In 2006, Cougars' free safety Will Gulley earned Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year honors while Brandon Brinkley was named to the league's all-freshman squad.

In his first season at Houston, Jennings saw Rocky Schwartz earn Conference USA third-team all-league honors and Kenneth Fontennette be named an honorable-mention Freshman All-American by The Sporting News.

Prior to his two-year stint at Houston, Jennings spent two seasons (2003-04) as the defensive backs coach at Louisiana-Lafayette, where he helped the Ragin' Cajuns to a No. 11 national ranking in pass defense. At Louisiana-Lafayette, Jennings tutored current NFL players Antwain Spann (New England Patriots), C.C. Brown (Houston Texans) and Michael Adams (Arizona Cardinals).

Jennings also worked two years (2001-02) as secondary coach and recruiting coordinator at Sam Houston State. He helped the Bearkats to a share of the 2001 Southland Conference championship and the quarterfinal round of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. At SHSU, Jennings coached All-American and Buck Buchanan Award finalist Keith Davis, who just completed his fifth season with the Dallas Cowboys.

Jennings also coached the secondary at Southern Arkansas (2000), Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa (1999) and Morehouse College in Atlanta (1998). At SAU, Jennings mentored Jordan Babineaux of the Seattle Seahawks. At Morningside, Jennings coached first-team All-American Matt Walker.

A four-year letterwinner (1992-95) as a defensive lineman and special teams standout at North Texas, Jennings was a member of the Mean Green's 1994 Southland Conference championship team and the school's first NCAA Division I-A squad in 1995. He began his coaching career as a student assistant (1996) and then graduate assistant (1997) at North Texas before moving on to Morehouse.

A 1992 graduate of Waco's La Vega High School and a 1996 North Texas alumnus (bachelor's of science in kinesiology), Jennings and his wife, Belinda, have two children: son Kirby and daughter Kenzie.

DAN SHARP

TIGHT ENDS/SPECIAL TEAMS

10TH SEASON AT TCU
TCU, '85

One of the more popular players to ever don the Purple and White, Dan Sharp is in his 10th year during his second stint as an assistant coach at his alma mater. He doubles as the tight ends and special teams coach.

A 2005 inductee into the TCU Lettermen's Hall of Fame, Sharp returned to the Horned Frogs' staff in 2001 as the tight ends coach and special teams coordinator. He previously coached for nine seasons at TCU before heading to Tulsa in 1998.

TCU topped the nation in 2009 in kickoff return average with a 29.2-yard mark. The Horned Frogs were 14th in punt returns (13.2). With Jeremy Kerley's two punt returns for scores and a Greg McCoy 81-yard kickoff return for a touchdown at Wyoming, TCU had three special teams touchdowns last season.

Kerley was named the Mountain West Conference Special Teams Player of the Year. TCU has had the first-team All-MWC return specialist all five seasons it has been in the league.

Sharp also coaches first-team All-MWC placekicker Ross Evans, who was 15-of-18 on field-goal attempts and set a TCU single-season record with 61 PATs.

In 2008, Sharp mentored Evans and fellow freshman Anson Kelton as they handled the kicking game for TCU.

Kelton earned All-Mountain West Conference honors as 30 of his 54 punts (55.6 percent) were placed inside the opponent 20 with just seven touchbacks. He had a 41.3 average. Evans made 16-of-20 field goals, including a 50-yard effort on his first collegiate attempt, and was the only freshman among the semifinalists for the Lou Groza Award as the nation's top placekicker.

Sharp previously coached at TCU (1991-97) under both Jim Wacker and Pat Sullivan. He mentored the tight ends for five years and handled the defensive ends for two seasons. Before joining the TCU staff on a full-time basis, Sharp served as a graduate assistant under Wacker.

Sharp was a tight end on TCU's 1984 team which went 8-3 and earned a trip to the Bluebonnet Bowl. He had a key touchdown reception in a 32-31 win at Arkansas, the Frogs' first victory in Fayetteville in 29 years.

In addition to providing outstanding blocking for TCU's vaunted running game, Sharp earned All-Southwest Conference honors in 1984 as he caught 42 passes for 596 yards and seven touchdowns. He spent two years in the NFL with the Atlanta Falcons before returning to TCU in 1988.

He received his bachelor's degree in secondary education from TCU in 1985 and his master's degree in liberal arts in 1992.

Sharp and his wife, Cindy, both natives of Boerne, Texas, are the parents of two daughters: Alexandra and Andrea.

TONY TADEMY

LINEBACKERS

SIXTH SEASON AT TCU
LOUISIANA TECH, '83

Tony Tademy joined the TCU football staff in June 2005.

Tademy has coached at least two All-Mountain West Conference selections in each of his first five years. Three Horned Frog linebackers over the last three seasons are in the National Football League.

The 2009 campaign saw Daryl Washington and Tank Carder, in their first season as starters, earn first- and second-team All-Mountain West Conference honors, respectively.

Washington was named to multiple All-America teams and was a 2009 Butkus Award semifinalist.

In 2008, Jason Phillips and Robert Henson were both first-team All-MWC and NFL draft selections. Phillips was the first pick in the fifth round by the Baltimore Ravens, while Henson was a sixth-round choice by the Washington Redskins.

Phillips became the first defensive player in MWC history to be a first- or second-team all-conference selection in four consecutive seasons. Henson was an honorable-mention pick his first three years before becoming a first-team honoree as a senior.

Tademy has been in the coaching profession since earning his bachelor's degree in general studies from Louisiana Tech in 1983. While an undergrad, he played linebacker and helped the Bulldogs to a pair of Independence Bowl appearances.

Tademy's first full-time assistant coaching stint came at VMI from 1985-86 when current TCU assistant head coach and offensive line coach Eddie Williamson was the Keydets' head coach.

Tademy coached the 1987 season at Louisiana Tech, serving as the inside linebackers coach. He later became the offensive line and specialists coach at Howard University, where he also coached linebackers and was the recruiting coordinator.

Tademy spent three seasons (1994-96) at the University of Houston, working with the defensive ends under coach Kim Helton and helping the Cougars to the 1996 Liberty Bowl.

Tademy returned to the high school ranks as an assistant coach at Texas City (Texas) High School from 1997-98, before taking over as the defensive coordinator at Louisiana-Lafayette from 1999-01. He spent one season as the defensive coordinator at Blinn College before becoming the defensive coordinator at McKinney in 2003.

A Jacksonville, Ark., native, Tademy and his wife, Maria, have two sons: A.J. and Victor.

EDDIE WILLIAMSON

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/
OFFENSIVE LINE

10TH SEASON AT TCU
DAVIDSON, '74

A veteran of the collegiate coaching ranks, Eddie Williamson is in his 10th season at TCU as the offensive line coach. He was given the additional title of assistant head coach in 2002.

Williamson has coached 14 All-Mountain West Conference selections over the last five seasons. Three of his former TCU linemen are active in the National Football League.

Three of TCU's five starters received postseason accolades in 2009, including first-team All-MWC tackles Marcus Cannon and Marshall Newhouse. Jake Kirkpatrick was one of six finalists for the 2009 Rimington Trophy, presented to the nation's top center. Kirkpatrick, who only played one year of high school football, was a first-team All-American by SI.com.

The 2009 TCU offensive line allowed only 12 sacks, the seventh-lowest total in the nation. The Frogs ranked fifth nationally in scoring offense (38.3 points per game) and rushing (239.5 yards per game), seventh in total offense (456.7 yards per game) and eighth in passing efficiency (154.1).

Williamson also served as an assistant coach at Texas Southern, Baylor, North Carolina, Wake Forest, South Carolina, Georgia, Duke and Furman.

Williamson also has experience as a head coach, serving in that role at VMI from 1985-88.

A native of Pendleton, S.C., Williamson was a standout linebacker at Davidson (1971-73). He graduated in 1974 and went on to earn his master's degree from Furman in 1976.

Williamson and his wife, Patty, have three children: Eddie III, Carrie Beth and Tricia.

DON SOMMER

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

10TH SEASON AT TCU
UTEP, '87

Don Sommer is in his 10th year as TCU's head strength and conditioning coach after arriving on campus in January 2001. He was named the 2008 National Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by footballscoop.com.

In his capacity, Sommer is responsible for the overall direction, design and implementation of strength and conditioning programs for all 20 sports at TCU.

In the 2005-06 athletics season, TCU led the nation with five football players and a total of 10 student-athletes receiving All-America honors from the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

Sommer came to TCU after serving in a similar capacity at the University of Missouri for two years. He had been part of the Tiger program since 1989, serving first as a graduate assistant for two years before assuming the assistant strength and conditioning coaching post in 1991.

Sommer was one of 10 individuals to receive the prestigious certification of "Master Strength & Conditioning Coach" at the 2003 Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA) national conference. He joined the existing 26 Master Strength & Conditioning Coaches, bringing the total number of MSCCs in the world to 36 at the time of his certification.

Sommer is a graduate of the University of Texas-El Paso with a bachelor's degree in education. He was a four-year letterman and starter for the Miners' football squad before playing professionally with the Buffalo Bills and Indianapolis Colts.

Sommer returned to the classroom following his playing career and earned his master's degree in health education from Missouri.

Sommer and his wife, Cindy, have two children: Dayne and Kaylin.

MIKE SINQUEFIELD

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

16th SEASON AT TCU
LSU, '92

Mike Sinquefield is in his 10th season as the director of football operations and 15th year overall at TCU.

Sinquefield's broad range of responsibilities include office management and administration, game day responsibilities, liaison with various athletic and university departments, team travel and recruiting visitations.

Prior to accepting his current position, Sinquefield previously served as the athletics equipment manager at TCU. In that role, he was responsible for maintaining and requisitioning athletic equipment for outfitting the Horned Frog student-athletes.

Prior to his arrival in Fort Worth, Sinquefield spent the previous three years in a similar capacity at East Carolina University in Greenville, N.C.

As an undergraduate, Sinquefield served as a student equipment manager and student athletic trainer at LSU. He earned his bachelor of general studies degree from LSU in 1992.

Sinquefield is a native of LaPlace, La. He and his wife, Alisa, have a son: Kaleb.

CHRIS GILLERT

ASST. DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

FOURTH SEASON AT TCU
UT TYLER, '00

Chris Gillert is in his fourth year with TCU and second season as assistant director of operations.

Gillert previously served as a graduate assistant coach for the Frog offense in 2007. He originally came to TCU in January 2007 as the graduate assistant for video.

Gillert helps coordinate team travel and organizes and maintains the recruiting database. He also serves as a liason to high schools and junior colleges for recruiting purposes and serves as the pro scout contact.

Gillert previously served two years as the wide receivers coach at Trinity Valley (Texas) Community College. He helped lead the Cardinals to 2005 conference, region and Pilgrim's Pride Bowl championships. Trinity Valley topped the Southwest Junior College Football Conference that season in total offense with 386 yards per game.

In 2005, Gillert coached the top two and four of the conference's top-10 receivers.

Prior to his tenure at Trinity Valley, Gillert worked two years as the wide receivers coach at Canton (Texas) High School

A 2000 graduate of UT Tyler, Gillert was a two-year starter at tight end for Abilene Christian (1994-95).

Joseph Turner led TCU's ground efforts with 66 yards on only 10 carries against Virginia. He also scored the Frogs' second touchdown of the afternoon.

CHARLOTTESVILLIE, Va. (AP) -- In its season opener Saturday, No. 16 TCU picked up where it left off last year, stifling Virginia's new spread offense and cruising to a 30-14 victory that was more convincing than the score indicates.

How one-sided was it? Consider this:

- Virginia managed just seven first downs - three of them coming in the final quarter, and two on long touchdown passes after the outcome had long been decided.

- The Cavaliers never snapped the ball inside the TCU 20-yard line.

- Virginia (0-2) finished with just 177 yards of total offense, and 83 of those came on Jameel Sewell's late TD passes.

TCU's offense, meanwhile, gave Virginia a tutorial on how to run the spread. The Horned Frogs gashed the Cavaliers for 203 yards on the ground, and Andy Dalton was 15-of-21 for 177 yards and one touchdown. They scored on all five of their trips into the red zone, although three times they had to settle for Ross Evans field goals.

"They were the No. 7 team in the country last year and it is pretty apparent why they're ranked highly," Cavs head coach Al Groh said. "Their quarterback is an excellent player. He was really able to control the game in a lot of different ways."

TCU coach Gary Patterson found a few things on offense for his team to work on, including a 1-for-11 showing on third downs. But all in all, he was relieved to get the opener behind him successfully.

"Crazy things happen in first games, and this was our first game. We didn't want to beat ourselves. Going on the road and beating an ACC team is a tough thing to do," said Patterson, whose 74th career victory at TCU tied him with Abe Martin for second, behind Dutch Meyer (109).

Nobody needs to tell the Cavaliers about crazy first games. A week ago, Virginia had seven turnovers in the loss to William and Mary.

This time they had just one - an interception on a tipped pass - but made plenty of other mistakes. A personal foul penalty on Corey Mosley kept one TCU touchdown drive alive, and a failed fake punt at midfield led to another Horned Frogs touchdown.

But the Cavaliers' biggest problem was simply an inability to move the ball. Virginia ran a no-hurry, no-huddle spread offense, with Sewell milking the play clock before taking the snap, in an attempt to control the time of possession. It worked in the first half, but by the end of the game TCU had a 34:49 to 25:11 advantage with the ball.

Sewell played the whole game after sharing time with Marc Verica and Vic Hall last week. Hall, sidelined by a hip injury, played only as a holder Saturday. Sewell was sacked eight times and was 8 of 18 for 120 yards, including TD passes of 56 yards to Javaris Brown and 26 yards to Tim Smith late in the game.

Joseph Turner and Jeremy Kerley had scoring runs for the Horned Frogs.

Wayne Daniels' first career start was highlighted by a third-quarter sack—one of eight Frog sacks against the Cavaliers.

Joseph Turner totaled 129 yard rushing and three of the Frogs' seven rushing touchdowns against Texas State. He carried the ball only 13 times for a 9.9 yards-per-carry average.

FORT WORTH (AP) -- A perfect victory for No. 15 TCU and coach Gary Patterson: a lopsided score and still plenty of teaching points.

Joseph Turner ran for 129 yards and three touchdowns on 13 carries and Jerry Hughes had three sacks as the Horned Frogs won their home opener 56-21 over Texas State.

With a looming trip to Clemson, TCU (2-0) got the expected outcome against a lower-division team on the same day Mountain West Conference foes and fellow hopeful BCS busters No. 7 BYU and No. 18 Utah lost.

Patterson said he was ultimately happy with the victory, but knew he was going to be upset with his team by Sunday morning after reviewing the film.

"They already know that. I didn't have to say anything in the locker room, they already know how this is going down," Patterson said. "We have to have attention to detail, we have to communicate. We have the potential to be what we want to be. The key to it is we have to go play."

Turner's first TD, a 3-yard run early in the second quarter, put TCU ahead to stay 2 1/2 minutes after the Bobcats (1-1) tied the game 7-all on Frank Reddic's fourth-down plunge from a yard out. Texas State's 16-play drive started after an interception, was extended with a fake punt and aided by a pass interference penalty in the end zone.

Hughes had started only one game his first two seasons before being an All-American last year, when he led the nation with 15 sacks. He has 4 1/2 this season, stopping an early Texas State drive when he got to Bradley George on a third-down play.

TCU led 28-14 at halftime when Turner scored on a 1-yard run in the final minute, then Antoine Hicks scored on a 4-yard run to start the second half. But Texas State wouldn't go away.

Tim Hawkins, a redshirt freshman who gets occasional snaps, came in and threw a 16-yard TD pass to Daren Dillard midway through the third quarter. The Bobcats then got the ball right back when Ron Jackson recovered a TCU fumble at the 10 before Bradley George's pass was intercepted in the end zone by Jason Teague.

Andy Dalton, the Frogs' third-year starting quarterback as a junior, was 18-of-24 for 222 yards and a 36-yard TD to Jimmy Young in his 19th career victory -- one more than Davey O'Brien, 10 fewer than TCU leader Sammy Baugh.

TCU put the game away with three TD runs in the fourth quarter, from Turner (6 yards), Matthew Tucker (1 yard) and Jercell Fort (9 yards).

Andy Dalton became only the third quarterback in TCU history to eclipse the 5,000-yard passing mark with 222 yards against Texas State.

Curtis Clay (2) scored his first career touchdown late in the first quarter on a 6-yard pass from Andy Dalton to give TCU a 7-3 lead. Earlier on the drive, Ed Wesley (inset) took the ball down to the 10-yard line on a 58-yard reception off a tipped pass.

CLEMSON, S.C. (AP) - No. 14 TCU showed off its stellar defense Saturday during a 14-10 road victory over Clemson at the Tigers' Memorial Stadium.

Andy Dalton threw two touchdown passes and the Horned Frogs (3-0) held Clemson to 117 yards in the second half to take control.

Not that it was easy.

TCU trailed 10-7 entering the fourth quarter as it had its own problems against a Tiger defense which held Boston College to 54 yards a week earlier.

That's when Dalton ended a 56-yard drive with a 25-yard TD pass to Antoine Hicks to move in front with 12:46 left.

The Tigers (2-2) twice advanced inside TCU's 20 down the stretch but could not score. The initial drive ended with Richard Jackson's first field goal miss in three games. The other died at the Frogs 16 as Kyle Parker threw a fourth-down incompletion to the end zone with 1:55 left.

Clemson got the ball back one last time with 1:03 to go - and again TCU held as Parker's desparation fourth-down heave was knocked aside.

Tigers star C.J. Spiller rushed for 112 yards and had a touchdown. Spiller joined another do-everything star, former USC Heisman Trophy winner Reggie Bush, in an exclusive college football club. They are the only players with at least 2,500 yards rushing, 1,500 yards in kickoff returns, 1,00 yards receiving and 500 yards in punt returns.

Spiller couldn't bring Clemson coach Dabo Swinney his first victory over a ranked team since taking over last October.

Dalton completed 17 of 26 for 226 yards, with a 6-yard TD pass to Curtis Clay in the opening quarter. Dalton also rushed for 86 yards and kept the Tigers off balance.

This game figured to be a low-scoring fight between two of the country's top defenses. And it was, after a few early fireworks.

Clemson drove 72 yards with the game's opening kick, moving easily on TCU for nearly 7 minutes. The Frogs toughened up in the red zone, though, holding the Tigers to Jackson's ninth field goal over the past three games.

TCU took advantage of a big break on the following series when Clemson defensive end Da'Quan Bowers tipped Dalton's pass high in the air and into the waiting hands of tailback Ed Wesley behind everyone else for a 58-yard catch and run.

Dalton connected with Clay for a score moments later.

That's when things got physical. Both defenses dug in, even trading fourth-and-short stops.

The Tigers got theirs when TCU, which had driven to Clemson's 24, passed up a field goal try for a straight-ahead carry by Joseph Turner that was stuffed by linebacker Kavell Conner with 11:48 left in the second quarter.

The Horned Frogs got payback about 7 minutes later, nose tackle Jeremy Coleman halting Clemson's Jamie Harper for no gain.

As usual, it took Spiller to open up the Tigers' offense. He snuck behind linebacker Daryl Washington for a 60-yard catch to the TCU 4. Three plays - and an TD overturned by an official review - later, Spiller got in for a 1-yard score and a 10-7 lead at the half.

Daryl Washington and the Frog defense shut out the Clemson offense in the second half while allowing only 117 total yards after halftime.

TCU kept possession of the Iron Skillet in Fort Worth by defeating SMU. The traveling trophy goes to the winner of the annual matchup between the Horned Frogs and Mustangs.

FORT WORTH (AP) -- Jeremy Kerley returned a punt 71 yards for the go-ahead touchdown and 10th-ranked TCU overcame three first-half turnovers to avoid a letdown against SMU, beating the Mustangs 39-14 Saturday night.

Kerley sprinted up the right sideline, shredded several tacklers before cutting back to the middle of the field and then pinballed off a defender and a teammate into the end zone with 5 minutes left in the first half. The Frogs' first punt return for a touchdown since the 2002 season opener--a span of 89 games--put them ahead to stay, 12-7.

Antoine Hicks had a 2-yard TD run and caught a 28-yard scoring pass from Andy Dalton for TCU, which averted a repeat of a loss suffered four years ago against SMU.

SMU led 7-0 when Shawnbrey McNeal turned a screen pass from Bo Levi Mitchell into a 24-yard touchdown in the opening minute of the second quarter. That capped a 75-yard drive, but the Mustangs were held to 224 total yards, well below their season average of 432.

Even though TCU quickly responded with Hicks' TD run, SMU kept the lead. The extra point attempt was blocked by 6-foot-8 freshman Margus Hunt, a world-class shotput and discus thrower from Estonia who had never played football before getting to SMU.

TCU, which failed to take advantage of an earlier long return by Kerley, went ahead to stay on the touchdown.

Dalton finished 12 of 20 passing for 189 yards with two touchdowns and an interception.

Kerley had a 42-yard punt return in the first quarter to the SMU 22, but Ryan Christian then fumbled at the end of a 10-yard catch after a scary helmet-to-helmet blow that knocked him and defensive back Derrius Bell to the ground--and out of the game.

Before both walked off the field with help, Christian and Bell were tended only feet from each other. The Mustangs went three-and-out, but got the ball back two plays later when Bart Johnson was stripped by Chris Banjo at the end of a 32-yard play to the SMU 16. Again they failed to covert, getting a quick 45-yard pass before Matt Szymanski missed wide right on a 53-yard field goal attempt.

Kerley had a 63-yard kickoff return to start the second half wiped out by offsetting penalties, but the Horned Frogs capped their opening drive with Matthew Tucker's 11-yard TD run.

Joseph Turner added a 1-yard TD with 3 minutes left in the third quarter, making it 25-7 only four plays after Emmanuel Sanders botched a fair catch on a punt that Tank Carder recovered at the SMU 21.

Sanders, who entered the game as the national leader with 11.7 catches per game, was held to eight receptions for 74 yards with a 4-yard score at the end of the third quarter.

Jeremy Kerley totaled 175 yards in returns, including 123 yards on punts. He scored TCU's second TD on a 71-yard punt return in the second quarter.

Tank Carder helped lead TCU's defensive effort in a 20-17 victory over Air Force on a chilly October night. Carder had a career-best eight tackles, including a sack, and led the Frogs with two pass breakups.

USAFA, Colo. (AP) - Andy Dalton and No. 9 TCU slid their way through the icy mist, freezing cold and Air Force defense Saturday during a 20-17 road win over the Falcons.

With temperatures in the teens and a frozen mist and drizzle falling, Dalton threw for 198 yards, receiver Jeremy Kerley had a rushing touchdown and a 52-yard kickoff return and the Horned Frogs (5-0, 1-0 Mountain West) finished with 393 yards, all but 22 of them in the first three quarters.

But TCU had to fight for four quarters for this win, thanks to three turnovers, including two after driving inside the Air Force 10-yard line.

The third came late in the fourth quarter and led to an 8-yard touchdown run by Connor Dietz that cut the Air Force deficit to three with 57 seconds left. But TCU recovered the onside kick to end the suspense and improve to 5-0 for the first time since 2003.

The Falcons (3-3, 2-1) fell short because of an offense that produced only four plays of more than 15 yards and a starting quarterback, Dietz, who completed only one pass for 5 yards over the first three quarters.

TCU came in with the nation's top-ranked rushing defense - a stat that likely will suffer after allowing 229 yards against Air Force's triple option. But the defense was good enough to secure a win in nasty conditions - the kind of game Gary Patterson's team knew it would have to grind through if 2009 is going to be a special season.

Dietz finished 6-for-17 for 42 yards for the Falcons, but their biggest completion came on a trick play when receiver Jonathan Warzeka took a pitch and threw a 16-yard touchdown to Kevin Fogler to cut Air Force's deficit to 14-7 before halftime.

It was the first offensive touchdown for the Falcons in more than 11 quarters.

TCU responded with a 5 1/2-minute drive to the Air Force 7 to open the third, but Falcons defensive back Reggie Rembert forced and recovered a fumble by Joseph Turner to keep the game close.

TCU's first drive of the game also ended with a turnover, when Andre Morris intercepted a deflected pass at the Air Force 3.

What Air Force really needed from its defense was a score or two. The Falcons defense came in with five touchdowns in five games, but did no scoring in this one despite hanging tough after staying on the field for nearly 29 minutes over the first three quarters.

A few minutes after TCU's second turnover, the Horned Frogs got the ball back and drove 41 yards to set up the first of two short field goals from Ross Evans. The second was set up by Kerley's long kickoff return after Air Force got its own field goal to cut the deficit to 17-10.

Turner ran for 72 yards and Jimmy Young had six catches for 113 yards for the Horned Frogs, who have gone on to win 11 games the other two times (2003, 2008) they've started the season with four straight victories.

Dietz, starting in place of injured Tim Jefferson (ankle) at quarterback, led the Falcons with 71 yards rushing on 15 carries.

Ross Evans kicked two field goals, including what proved to be the game-winner from 27 yards with 13:04 left in the fourth quarter.

Jeremy Kerley helped give TCU a 17-6 halftime lead with a 69-yard punt return for a touchdown just before intermission. The punt return score, only the second in the Frogs' last 92 games, was also the second for Kerley in three weeks.

FORT WORTH (AP) -- Jeremy Kerley tiptoed the sideline, then came to a near stop before finding an open lane to the end zone for his second punt return for a touchdown in three games, and No. 8 TCU remained undefeated with a 44-6 victory over Colorado State on Saturday.

Kerley's electrifying 69-yard return just before halftime made it 17-6, and came less than 2 1/2 minutes after TCU had finally taken the lead on Joseph Turner's 2-yard touchdown run.

The Horned Frogs carried the momentum into the second half, scoring touchdowns on their first four drives after intermission. Andy Dalton threw two touchdown passes, ran twice for 28 yards to set up Antoine Hicks' 3-yard TD run, and Luke Shivers scored on a 4-yard run.

Colorado State lost its fourth straight game. The previous three were to No. 18 BYU, No. 24 Utah and Idaho - a trio that entered Saturday with a combined 14-3 record.

TCU had gone 89 games without returning a punt for a score - since the 2002 season opener - until Kerley's 71-yarder just before halftime two weeks ago against SMU put the Frogs ahead to stay in their last home game.

This time, Kerley fielded the punt and sprinted down the right sideline in front of the TCU bench. He was almost pushed out of bounds near the 25, but kept his balance and then avoided another defender before suddenly putting on the brakes near the 15. He backtracked a couple of steps, then curled back to an open gap for a final sprint to the end zone.

Colorado State had punted after being pushed back by Jerry Hughes' seventh sack of the season. Hughes, the national leader with 15 last season, added his eighth after halftime.

Dalton finished 15-of-23 passing for 211 yards for his 23rd career victory. Sammy Baugh (29 victories from 1934-36) is the only TCU quarterback who has won more, and the junior Dalton still has 1 1/2 seasons left.

Curtis Clay was wide open over the middle when he caught a 47-yard TD pass from Dalton on the opening drive of the second half. Dalton then dumped a short pass to Ed Wesley, who broke three tackles and turned that into a 39-yard touchdown.

The Rams went ahead 6-0 when Ben DeLine kicked field goals (31 and 47 yards) on their first two drives.

Leonard Mason had five consecutive carries for 37 yards to set up the first Colorado State field goal, then gained 5 yards on the first play of the next drive. But he sustained a rib injury on that play and never returned.

TCU didn't get a first down until the final play of the first quarter, part of a drive when the Frogs needed 11 plays to gain 26 yards before Ross Evans kicked a 36-yard field goal to make it 6-3. The Frogs had first-and-goal from the 9 before a holding penalty.

Jerry Hughes led a four-sack day for the Frog defense with his seventh and eighth sacks of the season.

Wayne Daniels and the TCU defense harassed the Cougar offense all evening, limiting BYU to a season-low 298 total yards. The Frogs took down quarterback Max Hall five times, marking TCU's third game this season with at least five sacks.

PROVO, Utah (AP) - Andy Dalton passed for 241 yards and three touchdowns and No. 7 TCU remained unbeaten with a dominating 38-7 road victory over 16th-ranked BYU.

TCU was too fast for BYU on both offense and defense. The Frogs sacked Max Hall four times, the final one causing a fumble early in the fourth quarter that led to a touchdown to finish the blowout with 12:00 left in the game.

Hall finished 18 for 28 for 162 yards with a touchdown. The Cougars did nothing to help by committing nine penalties, including two on third downs that kept scoring drives alive for the Frogs. TCU outgained BYU, 412-298.

Harvey Unga had more than a third of BYU's yardage, running for 123 yards and catching a 3-yard pass from Hall for BYU's only touchdown.

Hall ended up with two turnovers, one on a tipped pass and the other when he was blindsided on a sack by Jerry Hughes early in the fourth quarter.

BYU, which had won 13 straight conference home games, was hoping to avenge a 32-7 loss at TCU last year that ended the team's 16-game winning streak. The Frogs scored the first 21 points Saturday and never let BYU back into it.

The Cougars gave the Frogs two breaks early in the third quarter. The first was when BYU's Bryan Kariya tipped a pass straight up in the air and Daryl Washington intercepted it and returned the ball to the 40. The Cougars' defense came up with a stop on third down from the 19, but a roughing-the-passer call gave TCU first-and-goal from the 9.

BYU held TCU to a field goal, but the Cougars' defense blew another chance a few minutes later. Dalton threw an incomplete on third down, but Brian Logan was called for interference on TCU receiver Antoine Hicks and TCU got a first down at the 25. On the next play, Dalton threw a 75-yard touchdown pass to Hicks, who left behind Logan long before he caught the ball in stride at the BYU 30.

After taking a 7-0 lead on a 4-yard run by Joseph Turner, the Frogs caught the Cougars by surprise with a reverse pitch pass deep in their own territory. Receiver Jeremy Kerley looked like he was going to throw the ball away and avoid a big loss when he spotted Bart Johnson open near midfield and threw it for a 44-yard gain.

Dalton completed the drive with a pass to Ed Wesley, who broke one tackle around the 25 and didn't face another Cougar until he leaped over the goal line.

TCU scored again with 5:03 left in the second on a 12-yard pass from Dalton to Young, who leaped to grab the ball and dragged a toe for the touchdown.

The Frogs had two sacks in the first quarter and nearly a third on a play that turned out even better for TCU. Hall passed the ball just before he hit the turf and the throw went backward enough that it was considered a lateral and a live ball. BYU recovered for a 9-yard loss.

BYU took a gamble late in the second quarter after getting stymied for a loss of 1 on third-and-goal from the 2. The Cougars went for it - quieting the boos they had been hearing from the home fans - and Hall hit Unga with a pass in the flat and Unga ran it in for a touchdown with 1:42 left to get BYU within 21-7.

Andy Dalton threw three touchdown passes for the first time in 2009 while totaling 241 yards passing against BYU.

Tank Carder and the TCU defense recorded its first shutout since 2007 by holding the Rebels to an opponent season-low 160 yards of total offense, including only 42 yards passing.

FORT WORTH (AP) - Andy Dalton threw three touchdown passes, Ed Wesley scored running and catching the ball and the TCU defense smothered UNLV to get its first shutout of the season, 41-0.

It was another dominating performance for the sixth-ranked Horned Frogs, who for now are in position to be this season's BCS buster.

TCU won its 10th consecutive game overall, and 12th in a row at home - a span at Amon Carter Stadium in which the Frogs have outscored their opponents by an average margin of 43-9 since a loss to Utah two years ago. The 19th-ranked Utes will be in Fort Worth in two weeks.

UNLV never challenged the Horned Frogs, a week after a 38-7 victory at BYU boosted them to sixth in the Bowl Championship Series standings and past Boise State, the only other undefeated team from a non-BCS conference.

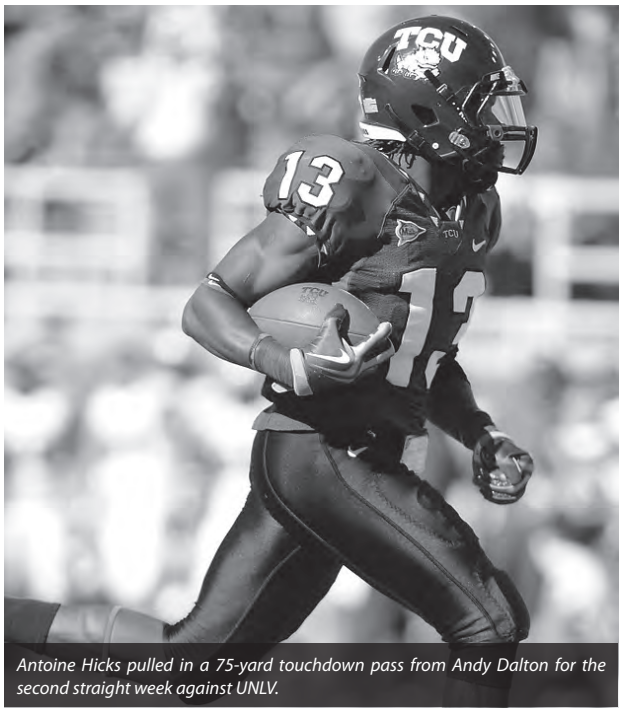
Boise State (8-0) beat San Jose State 45-7 on Saturday, the Broncos' eighth consecutive victory since losing to TCU in the Poinsettia Bowl last December.

UNLV managed only 160 yards, 40 of it coming on a run by backup quarterback Mike Clausen, and was shut out for the first time in 69 games - since losing 7-0 to San Diego State on Nov. 8, 2003. A week ago, the Rebels ended a 20-game Mountain West road losing streak that dated to 2005 with a 34-17 win at New Mexico.

It was TCU's sixth shutout victory at home since 2003.

Despite two lost fumbles, TCU led 17-0 early in the second quarter when Wesley took a handoff to the left, ran into a defender and reversed all the way to the other side of the field, where he found an open lane and sprinted for a 59-yard touchdown.

Wesley caught a 21-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter, that coming five plays after Ryan Wolfe muffed a punt, to make it 34-0.



Antoine Hicks pulled in a 75-yard touchdown pass from Andy Dalton for the second straight week against UNLV.

Wolfe, the NCAA's active career leading receiver, was held to a season-low five catches for 25 yards.

Ross Evans kicked the first of his two field goals, a 29-yarder, on TCU's opening drive.

It was 10-0 when Dalton hit Antoine Hicks for a 75-yard TD late in the first quarter. It was the seventh TD (four receiving, three rushing) in 17 touches this season for Hicks, who caught the ball near the UNLV 45 and broke a tackle.

Jeremy Kerley, who returned punts for touchdowns in the previous two home games, caught a 14-yard TD pass to cap the opening drive of the second half after he had a 43-yard kickoff return.

Dalton finished 12-of-21 passing for 178 yards, and ran eight times for 53 yards. That made him the team's fourth-leading rusher, behind Wesley (seven carries, 86 yards), Joseph Turner (10-64) and Matthew Tucker (9-59).

The Rebels punted 11 times, including their first nine possessions, before an interception ended a drive.

Ryan Christian provided TCU with a spark in the deep passing game against the Aztecs, totaling a career-best 106 yards receiving with a pair of touchdowns on three catches.

SAN DIEGO (AP) - TCU rolled over San Diego State to stay in the perfect position for a stretch run to a BCS bowl.

Behind Andy Dalton's two touchdown passes and a pair of TD runs, and its top-ranked defense, No. 4 TCU ran its winning streak to 11 games in a 55-12 rout of the Aztecs.

The Horned Frogs remained in the chase for their first BCS bowl with a dominating performance.

Dalton led an offense that scored on five of its first six possessions and gained more than 500 yards for the second straight game. The Horned Frogs were ahead of fellow undefeated Boise State, from the Western Athletic Conference, in last week's BCS standings.

Dalton scored on runs of 13 and 7 yards as TCU held a 31-6 halftime lead. He also hit Ryan Christian on TD passes of 44 and 29 yards.

"Early in the season on the road, we didn't start out fast," TCU coach Gary Patterson said. "One of the things I think we are finally doing, especially on offense, is that we are starting faster. That's what you have to do in the last half of the season. You let people hang around, anything can happen."

San Diego State struggled against TCU's top-ranked defense, managing just a 30-yard TD pass from Ryan Lindley to DeMarco Sampson and two field goals by Lane Yoshida.

"That was a long day," Aztecs coach Brady Hoke said. "I haven't been in one of these in a long time. They're a good football team. We got beat in every phase."

TCU's 11-game winning streak is the nation's third-longest behind Florida's 18-game and Texas's 13-game streak. Iowa had won 13 straight before losing to Northwestern earlier Saturday. The top-ranked Gators took on Vanderbilt later Saturday.

The Horned Frogs have outscored their last four opponents, 178-25. TCU, which gained a season-high 578 yards in last week's 41-0 win at UNLV, had 551 Saturday.

Turner had 61 yards on 13 carries and scored on a 4-yard run. Ed Wesley added a 5-yard TD run and Matthew Tucker scored from 30 yards.

Dalton, who left the game late in the third quarter, finished 14 of 20 for 239 yards. He also rushed for 44 yards on five carries. Christian had three catches for 106 yards.

TCU ran the ball for 312 yards on 53 carries. It was the second straight game the Horned Frogs topped 300 yards rushing, the first time since November 2000, when LaDainian Tomlinson was a senior.

The Horned Frogs' defense, ranked first in the country in total defense, produced four turnovers that led to 13 points. The Aztecs, who had their two-game winning streak snapped, gained just 279 yards.

Lindley completed 16 of 34 passes for 164 yards.

Andy Dalton recorded multiple rushing and passing touchdowns in the same game for only the second time in his career (also vs. Air Force, 2008).

Amon G. Carter Stadium featured a record crowd of 50,307 that saw the Frogs improve to 10-0. The total broke the previous stadium record of 47,280 set in 1984 against Texas.

FORT WORTH (AP) - Now that the hometown fans are really taking notice of No. 4 TCU, maybe the rest of the nation will also realize that the Horned Frogs are for real.

Utah certainly can't disagree.

TCU scored three touchdowns in a 2 1/2-minute span early in the second quarter and beat No. 14 Utah 55-28 Saturday night.

The Horned Frogs stretched their winning streak to 12 games since a last-minute loss last November at Utah, which had won 22 of 23. TCU also has won 13 in a row at home since losing to the Utes two years ago.

With a record crowd of 50,307 - a sellout at 79-year-old Amon Carter Stadium - and representatives from the Orange, Rose and Fiesta bowls watching from the athletic director's suite, the Frogs put on quite a show. Fans stormed the field when it was over.

Matthew Tucker had the first and last touchdowns (runs of 41 and 9 yards) for TCU, with five teammates getting into the end zone in between. The 55 points were the most allowed by Utah since 1996.

Ed Wesley ran for 137 yards and a touchdown and Andy Dalton threw for 207 yards and a score. TCU had 549 yards, its third straight game with at least 500.

Utah's Eddie Wide, who had posted six straight 100-yard games, was held to 25 yards on 14 carries.

Jeremy Kerley scored on a 1-yard run with 14:11 left in the first half after a blocked punt. He then had a 39-yard punt return to the Utah 29, setting up Dalton's 28-yard pass to Jimmy Young and Antoine Hicks' 1-yard TD run. Tank Carder then returned an interception 15 yards to make it 35-7 with 11:40 left.

The Utes, who had won six in a row since a 31-24 loss at Oregon in mid-September, entered freshman quarterback Jordan Wynn's second start as a nearly three-touchdown underdog. Utah was 5-1 in the series, the only loss in overtime at TCU in 2005, and won 13-10 last year in Salt Lake City by driving 80 yards to score the game-winning touchdown in the final minute.

There would be no chance of a comeback this time, especially considering that before its quick three-TD spurt TCU missed a chance to be up 14-0 before Utah's first offensive snap.

The Frogs' opening drive ended when Tucker took a handoff, juked a defender and sprinted toward the right sideline and untouched for a 41-yard touchdown.

On the ensuing kickoff, Utah's David Reed had to jumper over a teammate that had slipped down and then took a bone-jarring hit from Tyler Luttrell that knocked the ball loose. TCU recovered at the Utah 16, but didn't make a first down and Ross Evans missed a 26-yard field goal attempt.

Utah tied the game 7-all when receiver Shaky Smithson took a direct snap and scored on a 10-yard run. That came a play after Wynn converted a third-and-8 with a 31-yard pass, avoiding a secondary blitz, rolling to his left, motioning to receiver DeVonte Christopher and then floating the ball into his arms.

Ryan Christian turned a quick pass into a 16-yard touchdown after shaking past a defender at the line of scrimmage. That made it 14-7 with three minutes left in the first quarter, and Utah's next possession ended with the blocked punt.

Tyler Luttrell and the Frog defense limited Utah to only 65 yards rushing, while the TCU offense rolled up 342 yards on the ground and 549 total yards.

Greg McCoy provided the play of the game, returning a kickoff 81 yards for a touchdown late in the second quarter to begin a run of 35 unanswered TCU points.

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP) - Matthew Tucker and Joseph Turner each ran for two touchdowns, and No. 4 TCU routed Wyoming 45-10 for the Horned Frogs' best start in 71 years.

The win kept TCU in the thick of BCS contention and clinched at least a share of the Mountain West Conference crown. TCU last went 11-0 in 1938, capped off by a win over Carnegie Tech in the Sugar Bowl.

This wasn't the most polished victory TCU has turned in this season, the team turning the ball over four times. But the Frogs broke open a tight game midway through the second quarter by scoring 35 unanswered points, and have now outscored opponents 278-63 over the last six games.

Wyoming had just 52 yards of total offense in the second half. The Cowboys remained a win from becoming bowl eligible in coach Dave Christensen's first season.

Tucker rushed for a career-high 134 yards, while Turner, who was dinged up early in the first half, finished with 66 and scored on a pair of 5-yard runs.

Andy Dalton had a solid day, finishing 10 of 19 for 168 yards. He also threw a 45-yard TD strike to Jeremy Kerley that helped the Frogs begin to pull away from the pesky Cowboys.

Dalton was even more effective with his feet. Wyoming left the middle of the field wide open, allowing Dalton to run quite a few quarterback keepers and finish with 88 yards.

Dalton then got to sit back and watch the action in the fourth quarter. The Frogs will wrap up the regular season next week against New Mexico.

Dalton carved his name deeper into the TCU history books. His 28 wins are one shy of matching the school record that Slingin' Sammy Baugh set from 1934-36.

Austyn Carta-Samuels finished 4 of 10 for 83 yards and threw an interception. He eventually gave way to Robert Benjamin, who couldn't move the sputtering offense, either.

In a flash, the Frogs turned a potential scare into some breathing room.

TCU found itself tied at 10 after Wyoming's Chris Prosinski picked up a fumble and raced 98 yards for a score midway through the second quarter. But the tie lasted all of 16 seconds as Greg McCoy returned the ensuing kickoff 81 yards for a score.

Then, minutes later, Dalton found a hole in the Cowboys zone and hit Kerley in stride. He took it from there, sprinting 45 yards for a score and a 24-10 lead.

The Cowboys played one of the top teams in the nation tough for a half, just like they did earlier in the season against Texas, who led 13-10 before pulling away for a 41-10 win.

TCU wasn't clicking on offense early. Coming off an emotional win over Utah last weekend, the Frogs turned the ball over twice in the first half.

Tucker had touchdown runs of 3 and 48 yards for the Frogs, while Ross Evans added a 28-yard field goal.

Matthew Tucker ran wild against the Cowboys, totaling a career-high 134 yards and two touchdowns on only 11 carries.

TCU has its first undefeated regular season since the 1938 national championship team went 10-0 before closing its campaign with an 11-0 record after a 15-7 win over Carnegie Tech in the Sugar Bowl.

FORT WORTH (AP) - Bring on any opponent for TCU. The undefeated Horned Frogs are going to bust into the BCS for the first time. The only question left is where are they headed and who will they play.

"We can play with anybody," coach Gary Patterson said after TCU wrapped its first undefeated regular season in 71 years. "We're going to look forward to the challenge, we'll find out what that's going to be and we're going to get ready for it. ... This team can play with a lot of people, and not just this year."

Hard to argue after the fourth-ranked Horned Frogs improved to 12-0 with a 51-10 victory over New Mexico on Saturday--their seventh straight win by at least 27 points, a stretch including BYU and Utah, last year's BCS buster.

After some near-misses in the past, including a 10-0 start in 2003 and a one-loss season two years after that, TCU is higher in the BCS standings than any team from a conference without an automatic bid has ever been this late in the season. The Frogs are fourth behind Florida, Alabama and Texas.

Andy Dalton matched a career high with four touchdown passes, two to Antoine Hicks in a 12-second span that put the Horned Frogs up 30-0 early in the second quarter. Dalton had already run for a score.

As the final seconds ticked off the clock, fans chanted "B-C-S! B-C-S!" They then stormed the field to celebrate, creating a sea of purple around a riser in the middle of the field where a celebratory cooler shower-drenched Patterson accepted the Mountain West Conference championship trophy.

Dalton, a junior and third-year starter, was 15 of 24 for 228 yards while earning his 29th career victory, matching the school record set by "Slingin' Sammy" Baugh (1934-36). Dalton pushed his career TD passing total to 43, three more than Baugh and six shy of Max Knake's school record.

TCU has a 14-game winning streak, matching the school record set by the 1938 team led by Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Davey O'Brien that went 11-0 and clinched the team's only AP national championship. The school also claims a national title in 1935, the only other time the Frogs won 12 games.

Dalton's 8-yard keeper put TCU up 9-0. Then he threw TD passes the next three possessions, all in a span of 2 1/2 minutes.

Hicks made a 20-yard TD catch immediately after New Mexico (1-11, 1-7) fumbled the kickoff following his 62-yard score when Dalton hit him in stride near the 30.

Bart Johnson had a 17-yard touchdown catch before New Mexico went three-and-out and Hicks scored on consecutive passes. Johnson added a 24-yard TD on the first play of the fourth quarter before the Frogs returned two interceptions for scores in 2:20--Washington taking one 20 yards and Rafael Priest going 47 yards.

Hicks, who finished with five catches for 123 yards, has scored 10 touchdowns on 28 touches this season (six TDs on 19 catches and four TDs on nine rushing attempts).

New Mexico, which wrapped up its first season under coach Mike Locksley a week after getting its only victory, scored all of its points in a span of 72 seconds late in the first half and finished with only 172 yards on 74 plays.

Bart Johnson had four receptions for 48 yards, including 17- and 24-yard touchdowns for the first multi-score game of his career.

Led by two-time consensus All-America defensive end Jerry Hughes, the TCU defense held Boise State, the nation's top scoring team, to only one touchdown in the 2010 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

GLENDALE, Ariz. (AP) - Boise State reached into its bag of tricks again and stunned TCU in a Fiesta Bowl duel of unbeaten BCS busters.

After the Broncos pulled off a gutsy fake punt at their own 33-yard line, Doug Martin scored the decisive touchdown to give No. 6 Boise State a 17-10 victory over third-ranked TCU on Monday night.

A 10-10 stalemate came alive when punter Kyle Brotzman hit wide-open Kyle Efaw with a 30-yard strike with about 9 minutes to play. Four plays later, Martin dove over a tackler from 2 yards out as the Broncos became the second school ever to go 14-0, joining Ohio State in 2002.

The trickery evoked memories of Boise State's BCS debut three years ago, when it pulled out a passel of gadget plays to defeat Oklahoma on the same field.

Unlike that thriller, this game offered little drama until Petersen made another surprising call.

The Broncos caught the Horned Frogs napping on the fake punt by Brotzman. Kellen Moore then completed three straight passes to advance to the 2, and Martin scored to put Boise State up 17-10 with 7:21 to go.

TCU took over at its own 1 with 1:06 remaining and marched to the Boise State 30 before cornerback Brandyn Thompson disrupted a pass by Andy Dalton, and Winston Venable picked it off to end the threat.

Moore passed for 211 yards. Dalton finished with 272 yards and a score through the air, but was intercepted three times.

Brotzman also made a 40-yard field goal midway through the second to make it 10-0, putting the Horned Frogs in the biggest hole they had faced all season.

Some wondered whether the Broncos deserved a shot at the national title. On this night, they were just barely good enough to edge Mountain West champion TCU (12-1), snapping the Horned Frogs' 14-game win streak.

It was the first time two schools from conferences without automatic BCS bids have met in one of college football's biggest bowls. But for long stretches TCU and Boise State played as if they belonged in the Poinsettia Bowl, site of TCU's 17-16 victory over Boise State in December 2008.

Neither team could muster an offensive touchdown until the final minute of the first half, when Dalton hit Curtis Clay for a 30-yard score to make it 10-7 at halftime.

The Horned Frogs capitalized on Boise State's first turnover to pull even midway through the third. The Broncos had moved into Horned Frogs territory when All-American defensive end Jerry Hughes stripped Martin and recovered the ball at TCU's 43-yard line.

Eight plays later, Ross Evans kicked a 29-yard field goal to tie it at 10.

Curtis Clay made his third touchdown grab of the season with 49 seconds left in the first half.
